If you want an abortion you go to Planned Parenthood and that's well over 90 percent of what Planned Parenthood does.

~Jon Kyl

Continuing to pay people unemployment compensation is a disincentive for them to seek new work.

~Jon Kyl

It would be hard to find a more compelling example of the American dream than Alberto Gonzales.

~Jon Kyl

Real leadership means tackling tough problems ourselves and not leaving them to our children.

~Jon Kyl

Illegal immigration is a genuinely national issue, and resolving it requires a national commitment not just on health care but also border control, law enforcement and other resources.

~Jon Kyl

Big guy and little guy, it should make no difference. The rule of law demands neutrality.

~Jon Kyl

That claim was not intended to be a factual statement.

~Jon Kyl

Indeed, only one Supreme Court justice in history, one Horace Lurton, nominated by President [John] Taft, had more federal appeals court experience [than Samuel Alito].

~Jon Kyl

It is true that, when an entitlement begins to be enjoyed by people, they like to keep it.

~Jon Kyl

It is unfair for our hospitals to bear a hugely disproportionate burden for mandated emergency health treatment for illegal aliens.

~Jon Kyl

I was pleased to see that Chief Justice [John] Roberts refused to prejudice issues or make promises in exchange for confirmation votes. We're all better off because of his principled stand.

~Jon Kyl

Our courts provide a neutral forum for the adjudication of disputes under the law, not based on economic or political power, on race, on sex or any other personal characteristics.

~Jon Kyl

Politicians must pick sides regularly; every time they vote. So it's perhaps natural that they see the world as a battle between competing groups.

~Jon Kyl

No judicial nomination should answer any question that is designed to reveal how the nominee will rule on any issue that could come before the court.

~Jon Kyl

Politicians must let voters know what they think about issues before the election. Judges should not.

~Jon Kyl

The death tax is unfair, inefficient, economically unsound and, frankly, immoral.

~Jon Kyl

Efforts to protect critical computer networks have unfortunately not kept pace with the march of technology.

~Jon Kyl

Judge [Samuel] Alito, I'll tell you the same thing I told John Roberts. I expect you to adhere to the Code of Judicial Conduct.

~Jon Kyl

Arizonians are deeply proud of Justice Sandra Day O'Connor's service to this country. She will always be remembered by Arizonans and all Americans as an extraordinary public servant.

~Jon Kyl

It ought to be done by the elected officials themselves because they have the credibility. And it's not like we aren't willing to help.

~Jon Kyl

It seems that immigrants often have a special understanding of the incredible opportunities that this nation affords its citizens.
