Make sure that you always follow your heart and your gut, and let yourself be who you want to be, and who you know you are. And don't let anyone steal your joy.

~Jonathan Groff

Just follow your joy. Always. I think that if you do that, life will take you on the course that it's meant to take you.

~Jonathan Groff

Musical auditions are always the worst because you have to sing and act, and that's so stressful.

~Jonathan Groff

At the end of the day, the end of the movie is sort of ambiguous - it's whatever you want it to be.

~Jonathan Groff

I'm kind of whatever about nudity. Hopefully I wouldn't be a part of anything, whether I'm naked or not, that I didn't believe in. But I'm pretty comfortable being naked.

~Jonathan Groff

In a play, you can adjust your performance to audience reaction, but in a film it's like you're trapped in a bad dream watching yourself act and you're in the audience

~Jonathan Groff

If I were to be back on Glee, I would like to spend some time with Lea Michele because I love her and we go way back.

~Jonathan Groff

We didn't have a glee club at my school. It depends on what area of the States you're from. It's more in the Midwest.

~Jonathan Groff

I went to a local high school in Lancaster. Not much I can say about it; it was pretty much your typical public high school back in Pennsylvania.
