If you get raised up having everything you want and then get put out in the world and try to live your own life, you've never had anything to train you how to live.

~Jonny Lang

Apparently, there's this whole set of disgruntled people but obviously it's not my intention to offend anyone by changing the style of music that I've done.

~Jonny Lang

During a big rock show, you can flub a few things and nobody will hear it, because it gets buried under everything else.

~Jonny Lang

Who I am musically I hope will just keep changing and changing.

~Jonny Lang

I'm not a fast, stream-of-consciousness lyricist at all - I know some guys who are, and if there is one skill I wish I had, it's that.

~Jonny Lang

I don't want to sound arrogant or anything, but I just always knew that my career would be playing music.

~Jonny Lang

I think I've just gotten better at learning how to write a song.

~Jonny Lang

I've probably gone a month or two without playing guitar, just because I've gotten so burnt on it touring all year or whatever.

~Jonny Lang

When I began my career, I was constantly referred to as the kid who could play the blues.

~Jonny Lang

Yeah, touring can get rough some times and draining, but I always have to pinch myself and realize that I'm doing what I love.

~Jonny Lang
