Disarming Iraq is legal under a series of U.N. resolutions. Iraq is in flagrant violation of U.N. Security Council resolutions.

~Jose Maria Aznar

Without economic development, any potential for political openness and freedom will be questionable.

~Jose Maria Aznar

Not acting to rid the world of weapons of mass destruction is neither politically nor morally acceptable.

~Jose Maria Aznar

The alliance should agree... to an effective NATO role against the new threats presented by international terrorism and weapons of mass destruction.

~Jose Maria Aznar

Young people in particular need real options to find a decent job and to lift their lives. I'm not sure the new Islamist governments will be the best to promote prosperity and growth.

~Jose Maria Aznar

Appeasement was never a very clever policy, and it should not be our option today.

~Jose Maria Aznar

There are countries that prefer to think that they're buying comfort at the cost of others, but I don't think that's the way you can act in this world. There are no neutral groups.

~Jose Maria Aznar

The harm done to Israel is damage done to the West. And delegitimizing Israel is a delegitimization of the West.

~Jose Maria Aznar

Speak less but act more.

~Jose Maria Aznar

My conviction is that the best strategy to defend the West is to defend Israel.

~Jose Maria Aznar

I am a quiet man who grows through adversity.

~Jose Maria Aznar

There are the countries of the north of Europe taking decisions and the countries of the south of Europe that are living under intervention. This division exists.

~Jose Maria Aznar

Today we confront the future with optimism from a founded hope for the Iraqi people - in freedom

~Jose Maria Aznar

It is clear that no one will achieve any kind of objective through the force of violence, and that no one will make Spaniards yield to threats of guns, whoever may be holding them
