

Joseph Chamberlain

Quotes

House, Thinking, World, Two, Abuse, Toil, Competition, Class, Passed Away, Nations, Happenings, Sea, Fortnight, Use, London, Believe, Sheep, Fields, Failing, Years

If we fail, let us try again and again until we succeed.

~Joseph Chamberlain

In politics, there is no use looking beyond the next fortnight.

~Joseph Chamberlain

We are not downhearted, but we cannot understand what is happening to our neighbours.

~Joseph Chamberlain

London is the clearing-house of the world.

~Joseph Chamberlain

Provided that the City of London remains, as it is at present, the clearing-house of the world, any other nation may be its workshop.

~Joseph Chamberlain

Sugar is gone; silk has gone; iron is threatened; wool is threatened; cotton will go! How long are you going to stand it? At the present moment these industries...are like sheep in a field.

~Joseph Chamberlain

The day of small nations has passed away; the day of Empires has come.

~Joseph Chamberlain

In great deeds something abides.

~Joseph Chamberlain

Lord Salisbury constitutes himself the spokesman of a class, of the class to which he himself belongs, who'toil not neither do they spin'.

~Joseph Chamberlain

On great fields something stays.

~Joseph Chamberlain

Learn to think impartially.

~Joseph Chamberlain

Learn and think imperially.

~Joseph Chamberlain

Learn to think imperially.

~Joseph Chamberlain

Related Links:

- House Quotes
- Thinking Quotes
- World Quotes
- Two Quotes
- Abuse Quotes
- Toil Quotes
- Competition Quotes
- Class Quotes
- Passed Away Quotes
- Nations Quotes
- Happenings Quotes
- Sea Quotes
- Fortnight Quotes
- Use Quotes
- London Quotes
- Believe Quotes
- Sheep Quotes
- Fields Quotes
- Failing Quotes
- Years Quotes