You can't just be reading books all the time and leave the writing of them to others.

~Joseph Delaney

He who never makes a mistake never makes anything. It's part of learning the job.

~Joseph Delaney

Even a strong man can succumb to the wiles of a pretty girl with pointy shoes.

~Joseph Delaney

The first step towards knowledge is to accept your own ignorance.

~Joseph Delaney

I watched the tears run down her cheeks and start to drip from the end of her chin. One part of me wanted to put my arms round her but I daren't. Do that and I'd never be able to let her go.

~Joseph Delaney

And mothers are usually quite trustworthy, as long as your their son. Otherwise look out!

~Joseph Delaney

None of us are either all good or all bad - we're all somewhere in between - but there comes a moment in each life when we take an important step, either toward the light or toward the dark.

~Joseph Delaney

Everyone has a price.

~Joseph Delaney

Human beings have hope. Not matter how desperate things are, they convince themselves that they can change things for the better." - John
