

Joseph Franklin Rutherford Quotes

Men, Earth, Jehovah, Happiness, Riches, Mean, Children, Effort, Fountain, Years, Way, Happy, Reading, Rich, Creation, Creatures, Selfish, Writing, Giving, Scripture

Jehovah created the earth and therefore it is his by right of creation.

~Joseph Franklin Rutherford

Jehovah God is truly rich far beyond the imagination of humankind.

~Joseph Franklin Rutherford

The book of Revelation is written largely in symbols.

~Joseph Franklin Rutherford

False riches, consisting of money, houses and lands, acquired by selfish means at cost to others and thereafter used selfishly, are almost always used for the oppression of other persons.

~Joseph Franklin Rutherford

The inspired Scriptures make the clear distinction between false and true riches and make plain the reason why happiness is gained and fully enjoyed only by those who find true riches.

~Joseph Franklin Rutherford

By his own efforts man could never gain the true and desired riches.

~Joseph Franklin Rutherford

Today the eyes of orthodox Jews of earth are fixed upon Palestine.

~Joseph Franklin Rutherford

The earth is yet the place of the domicile of man and all the offspring of the first man.

~Joseph Franklin Rutherford

The earth incites the wonder and admiration of man even though he is imperfect and his understanding greatly limited.

~Joseph Franklin Rutherford

The ecclesiastical system of Rome, and particularly its leaders, for a thousand years and more thought that the earth is fixed and that everything else revolves about it.

~Joseph Franklin Rutherford

Before we can know God and understand his great plan it is first necessary for us to believe that he exists and that he rewards all who diligently seek him.

~Joseph Franklin Rutherford

The few men who possess the wealth of the material things of the earth at the present time are not truly happy.

~Joseph Franklin Rutherford

Life everlasting in a state of happiness is the greatest desire of all men.

~Joseph Franklin Rutherford

The Bible is the fountain of truth.

~Joseph Franklin Rutherford

The Bible is God's Word expressed and revealed to his creature, man.

~Joseph Franklin Rutherford

The Bible is God's sacred Word of truth.

~Joseph Franklin Rutherford

Every person who will learn the right way, and who will then continue diligently to follow that right way, is absolutely certain in time to possess great riches and all attending blessings.

~Joseph Franklin Rutherford

The Bible shows the clear statement of God's purposes concerning the earth, and man once made its prince. Its opening chapters show that it was intended for man's instruction.

~Joseph Franklin Rutherford

The Bible is the only credible guide either as to the real relationship between man and the earth and the great Creator of both or concerning the purpose of the creation of both.

~Joseph Franklin Rutherford

The development of the telescope, together with increased knowledge of things, brought men to see that the earth is not what man had once thought it to be.

~Joseph Franklin Rutherford

Since the days of Abraham many men of unusual intellect not only have diligently studied the divine plan, but have devoted their lives to having a part in making it known to others.

~Joseph Franklin Rutherford

Related Links:

- Men Quotes
- Earth Quotes
- Jehovah Quotes
- Happiness Quotes
- Riches Quotes
- Mean Quotes
- Children Quotes
- Effort Quotes
- Fountain Quotes
- Years Quotes
- Way Quotes
- Happy Quotes
- Reading Quotes
- Rich Quotes
- Creation Quotes
- Creatures Quotes
- Selfish Quotes
- Writing Quotes
- Giving Quotes
- Scripture Quotes