Sabbath rest is more than mere abstention from physical work; and, therefore, must include worship and Scripture-reading.

~Joseph Hertz

Judaism stands or falls with its belief in the historic actuality of the revelation at Sinai.

~Joseph Hertz

In spite of the pangs of travail, the longing for motherhood remains the most powerful instinct in woman.

~Joseph Hertz

Prayer is a universal phenomenon in the soul-life of man. It is the soul's reaction to the terrors and joys, the uncertainties and dreams of life.

~Joseph Hertz

A wife is not a man's shadow or subordinate, but his other self, his "helper," in a sense which no other creature on earth can be.

~Joseph Hertz

Divine punishment is at once followed by Divine pity.

~Joseph Hertz

Because man is endowed with Reason, he can subdue his impulses in the service of moral and religious ideals, and is born to bear rule over Nature.

~Joseph Hertz

Man must be a co-worker with God in making this earth a garden.

~Joseph Hertz

Everything in the Universe was as the Creator willed it - nothing superfluous, nothing lacking - a harmony.

~Joseph Hertz

Man's most sacred privilege is freedom of will, the ability to obey or disobey his Maker.

~Joseph Hertz

Not indolence but congenial work is man's Divinely allotted portion.

~Joseph Hertz

Though man comes from the dust, sin is not a part of his nature. Man can overcome sin, and through repentance attain to at-one-ment with his Maker.

~Joseph Hertz

Men of all lands and climes are brothers.
