Put it before them briefly so they will read it, clearly so they will appreciate it, picturesquely so they will remember it and, above all, accurately so they will be guided by its light.

~Joseph Pulitzer

Newspapers should have no friends.

~Joseph Pulitzer

There is not a crime, there is not a dodge, there is not a trick, there is not a swindle, there is not a vice which does not live by secrecy.

~Joseph Pulitzer

A cynical, mercenary, demagogic press will produce in time a people as base as itself.

~Joseph Pulitzer

The power to mould the future of the Republic will be in the hands of the journalists of future generations.

~Joseph Pulitzer

Publicity, publicity, PUBLICITY is the greatest moral factor and force in our public life.

~Joseph Pulitzer

Our republic and its press will rise and fall together.

~Joseph Pulitzer

My especial object is to help the poor; the rich can help themselves. I believe in self-made men.

~Joseph Pulitzer

A newspaper that is true to its purpose concerns itself not only with the way things are but with the way they ought to be.

~Joseph Pulitzer

I want to talk to a nation, not to a select committee.

~Joseph Pulitzer

I desire to assist in attracting to this profession young men of character and ability, also to help those already engaged in the profession to acquire the highest moral and intellectual training

~Joseph Pulitzer
