I think Judas was a very devout religious Jewish person. He realizes that Jews had been persecuted and enslaved for thousands of years, and he wants to keep his people from going through that anymore.

~Josh Young

I really, really love new work, and that's why, you know, I produced a concert series supporting new musicals and stuff like that. I hope to do more things like that.

~Josh Young

AMAZING GRACE is about the man who wrote "Amazing Grace," John Newton. It's a really great show - I have been workshopping it for a while now, actually.

~Josh Young

My favorites growing up were always Billy Joel, Michael Jackson... and Placido Domingo.

~Josh Young

I've forgotten lines all the time. Sometimes I switch verses in a song. It's just hard not to when you're doing the same thing all the time.

~Josh Young

I was raised Jewish. I didn't know anything about Christianity.

~Josh Young

I lost 100 pounds and embraced theater and music as what I was going to make for the rest of my life.

~Josh Young

I was completely unhealthy, obese, so I committed to running three miles every morning for six months and following a strict diet, and 100 pounds came off.

~Josh Young

I have a half an hour warm-up I do that my voice teacher gave me. I exercise at least for an hour during the day. I don't have any superstitious rituals or anything like that.

~Josh Young

As an artist, I think you always have to take care of yourself as a person probably even more than the average person because your body is so important to your art.

~Josh Young

I would love to play Bobby in COMPANY. Also, I would love to play George in SUNDAY.
