I was touched by the magic of music. My way to communicate was through my guitar and music.

~Juanes

You have to learn to balance work, family, a personal life; it is a part of life.

~Juanes

I'm not more than a musician that enjoys what he does and a Colombian that dreams and fights for peace in his country.

~Juanes

I believe love is the most powerful energy we have in this life. Everything is about love.

~Juanes

Singing in Spanish is much more honest, much closer to my roots. For me, Spanish is essential. I still think in Spanish, dream in Spanish. It's the melodies and arrangements that transmit meaning.

~Juanes

You know, violence, I think, knocks on everyone's door.

~Juanes

Praying doesn't mean repeating a prayer.

~Juanes

I always travel with my guitar. I take it myself - with me in my hand. I don't like to send it by cargo because it's dangerous. There is no way I would do that.

~Juanes

I come from a very, very Catholic family. We used to pray the rosary every day after dinner.

~Juanes

Joaquin Sabina is one of my favorites. He's like a legend. He's like our Bob Dylan, or our Bruce Springsteen. He's one of the most talented writers of our Latin music.

~Juanes

When I talk about God, I'm not necessarily talking about religion. To me, God is the energy and light that each of us carries.

~Juanes

Everything we see, everything that exists, is part of God.

~Juanes
