Somewhere over the rainbow, skies are blue, and the dreams that you dare to dream really do come true.

~Judy Garland

For it was not into my ear you whispered, but into my heart. It was not my lips you kissed, but my soul.

~Judy Garland

Always be a first-rate version of yourself, instead of a second-rate version of somebody else.

~Judy Garland

Wouldn't it be wonderful if we could all be a little more gentle with each other, and a little more loving, have a little more empathy, and maybe we'd like each other a little bit more.

~Judy Garland

Birds fly over the rainbow. Why then, oh, why can't I?

~Judy Garland

Behind every cloud is another cloud.

~Judy Garland

The greatest treasures are those invisible to the eye but found by the heart.

~Judy Garland

We cast away priceless time in dreams, born of imagination, fed upon illusion, and put to death by reality.

~Judy Garland

In the silence of night I have often wished for just a few words of love from one man, rather than the applause of thousands of people.

~Judy Garland

I've always taken 'The Wizard of Oz' very seriously, you know. I believe in the idea of the rainbow. And I've spent my entire life trying to get over it.

~Judy Garland

I can live without money, but I cannot live without love.

~Judy Garland

Give the people what they want and then go have a hamburger.

~Judy Garland

I've never looked through a keyhole without finding someone was looking back.

~Judy Garland

To let a fool kiss you is bad...To let a kiss fool you is worse. 'Twas not my lips you kissed but my soul.

~Judy Garland

If I am a legend, then why am I so lonely?

~Judy Garland

He gave me a look at myself I've never had before. He saw something in me nobody else ever did. He made me see it too. He made me believe it.

~Judy Garland

Hollywood is a strange place if you're in trouble. Everybody thinks it's contagious.

~Judy Garland

I've been in love with audiences all my life, and I've tried to please. I hope I did.

~Judy Garland

I was born at the age of twelve on an MGM lot.

~Judy Garland

My life, my career has been like a roller coaster. I've either been an enormous success or just a down-and-out failure.

~Judy Garland

When I die I have visions of fags singing 'Over the Rainbow' and the flag at Fire Island being flown at half mast.

~Judy Garland

How strange when an illusion dies. It's as though you've lost a child.

~Judy Garland

'Twas not my lips you kissed but my soul.

~Judy Garland

I try to bring the audience's own drama - tears and laughter they know about - to them.

~Judy Garland

You know something? I'm decent! There isn't a great deal of decency in the world, especially in our business, and I'm one of the few really decent ladies around.

~Judy Garland

If you have to be in a soap opera try not to get the worst role.

~Judy Garland

You are never so alone as when you are ill on stage. The most nightmarish feeling in the world is suddenly to feel like throwing up in front of four thousand people.

~Judy Garland

If I'm such a legend, then why am I so lonely? Let me tell you, legends are all very well if you've got somebody around who loves you.

~Judy Garland

Soon the sun beams will smile through. Before you jump out of that bed, just know, the thought of you was the first thing that hit my head. Good morning my darling.

~Judy Garland

There have been times when I have deliberately tried to take my life... I think I must have been crying for some attention.

~Judy Garland

[On daughter Liza Minnelli] I think she decided to go into show business when she was an embryo, she kicked so much.

~Judy Garland

Audiences have kept me alive.

~Judy Garland

I think there's something peculiar about me that I haven't died. It doesn't make sense but I refuse to die.

~Judy Garland

It's lonely and cold on the top... lonely and cold.

~Judy Garland
