

Judy Woodruff

Quotes

Thinking, People, Phones, Years, Mean, Cutting, Men, Mother, Two, Country, President, Jobs, Government, United States, Play, Parent, Doubt, May, Program, College

There are many things we can live without but a sense of humor is not one of them!

~Judy Woodruff

If you spend enough time in or around Washington, you'll meet amazing people who work for the government.

~Judy Woodruff

At work, conversation increases productivity. And yet people go into work, put on their headphones. In one interview, somebody called it - they become pilots in their own cockpits.

~Judy Woodruff

I think we have reached such saturation levels, the money at this point doesn't swing election.

~Judy Woodruff

My job is to try and bring attention to places that don't have it

~Judy Woodruff

You can find inspiration when you're not even looking for it.

~Judy Woodruff

For the past 21 years, I've been privileged to be part of an amazing organization called the International Women's Media Foundation.

~Judy Woodruff

If image is everything, how can the Democratic presidential hopefuls compete with a President fresh from a war victory.

~Judy Woodruff

It's always unfortunate when a reporter is sent behind bars for failing to turn over sources. There's no way to say what the long-term outcome will be.

~Judy Woodruff

Is this administration, the Clinton administration, an administration that needed defending?

~Judy Woodruff

Politics is in my blood. I'd love to be involved in 2008, maybe even '06.

~Judy Woodruff

My younger sister retired a few years ago after a 30-year career teaching history and social studies at an inner-city high school.

~Judy Woodruff

It's very typical that when two people are having lunch, they put a phone on the table between them.

~Judy Woodruff

And I've been incredibly lucky to have a long career in journalism that has given me a front-row seat to some of the most important moments in modern American political life.

~Judy Woodruff

In some senses, I think it's almost deliberately anachronistic. There's a retro feel to the [Donald] Trump program.

~Judy Woodruff

This is naturally the most important thing, the dark traces left by the era of totalitarianism in the human mind, where is - are difficult to do away with. And this is a very demanding job.

~Judy Woodruff

As the mother of a grown son with a traumatic brain injury, I couldn't be more excited about the prospect of finding out how to repair even a small part of the damage that changed his life.

~Judy Woodruff

The sorts of sectors which feature so largely in the [Donald] Trump program, and its rhetoric, account now for perhaps only about 15 percent of the American work force.

~Judy Woodruff

I think that Election Day is the closest thing we have to a civic sacrament, when people meet their neighbors at the firehouse or the school and they vote at the same time.

~Judy Woodruff

The N-word is one of the most contentious words in the English language.

~Judy Woodruff

I don't think anyone is closer to the voters in Washington than members of the House of Representatives.

~Judy Woodruff

I think he [Vaclav Havel] felt that he could speak more truth, in a way, through writing plays.

~Judy Woodruff

I have no doubt about it. I think this is a part of the nature of man, a desire for freedom, for dignified life.

~Judy Woodruff

The system was afraid of Vaclav Havel. And so they either harassed him or put him in jail.

~Judy Woodruff

I think that, from Vaclav Havel own experience, he knew if we all paid attention to what was going on, the chances were that even the most horrible dictators wouldn't execute people.

~Judy Woodruff

Historically, when times are bad, voters, especially in the Industrial Midwest, have turned to the Democrats.

~Judy Woodruff

In the study, 89 percent of Americans said that they interrupted their last social encounter by looking at a phone. And 82 percent of them said that it deteriorated the conversation.

~Judy Woodruff

That's one of the surprises in the research, that's it's not young people who are smitten with their phones. It's their parents who are not paying attention to them.

~Judy Woodruff

Income tax in particular in the United States is concentrated on the top half of the income distribution, and very heavily skewed towards the top 10 or even top 1 percent.

~Judy Woodruff

United States military involvement in Syria has deepened since President Trump took office.

~Judy Woodruff

That was an exception within the [Barack] Obama administration's economic policy, a crisis that he inherited from the previous administration, and felt it was essential to carry through on.

~Judy Woodruff

President Trump say that relations between the United States and Russia may be at their lowest point since the end of the Cold War.

~Judy Woodruff

Almost all of us have wondered at one point or another about the taxes we pay: Where does the money go?

~Judy Woodruff

There are still very few companies run by women these days. And, clearly, there are many reasons for that, including what many see as the role of both unconscious bias and outright sexism.

~Judy Woodruff

We're obviously in speculation territory here, because we don't know what the Trump administration is going to do.

~Judy Woodruff

As the mother of a son with disabilities, I try to keep an eye out for news that affects people in the large community of which he is a part.

~Judy Woodruff

Every news organization should ideally be as broadly representative as possible.

~Judy Woodruff

One of the main things we have been looking at is, how can we get a robot to think about situations it's never seen before?

~Judy Woodruff

Raising children is a journey generously sprinkled with what many view as teachable moments, perhaps none as challenging as those surrounding faith and religion.

~Judy Woodruff

Despite the vast expanse of shoreline in this country, more than 90 percent of the seafood Americans eat is imported.

~Judy Woodruff

Every president feels that he has gotten unfair, dishonest coverage from the news media.

~Judy Woodruff

People want jobs, but nobody has a recipe for how to get them. And so they are trying different things.

~Judy Woodruff

Senate races are different from House races, in the sense that they are more candidate-driven. The higher the office - that is, I mean, governor, senator, president - the more important the candidate.

~Judy Woodruff

I think it's important that campaigns be aired all the way through, that people aren't voting three weeks before, before debates are held.

~Judy Woodruff

AFSCME stands for the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees.

~Judy Woodruff

I think even Republicans are saying [Andrew] Puzder may have a problem.

~Judy Woodruff

Trump said today that if countries are going to have nuclear weapons, then he said the United States needs to be at the top of the back, in his words, meaning increasing the U.S. nuclear arsenal.

~Judy Woodruff

When it comes to economics, president-elect [Donald] Trump has promised to revive American manufacturing, get tough on trade with China, cut taxes and invest in infrastructure.

~Judy Woodruff

Election Day now has become the last day to vote.

~Judy Woodruff

When I think of grass I think of something to walk on, pot as something to put a plant in.

~Judy Woodruff

We haven't learned to be the majority party. We haven't learned how to lead. We're still stuck in the opposition.

~Judy Woodruff

We decided to focus on women because no one was singling them out.

~Judy Woodruff

Some days you feel like you've had the greatest ego massage, then the next day you've been trampled on.

~Judy Woodruff

My mother was adored by her family and by the scores of children she took care of and their parents, all of whom called her 'Miss Woody.

~Judy Woodruff

Machines are on track to be on par with human intelligence in less than 15 years.

~Judy Woodruff

I mean, the 1930s are the birth moment of modern public sector, government-driven infrastructure spending.

~Judy Woodruff

What we do have is a gigantic matching tax-cutting program as a way of stimulating the economy.

~Judy Woodruff

There's no doubt that [tax cuts] act as a stimulus. How could they not, in a sense? You're giving cash back to households.

~Judy Woodruff

There's no embassy for the United States in Iran. So, Iranians process those in other countries.

~Judy Woodruff

If you stimulate the economy by means of a tax cut, the people that you tend to be benefiting are the better off.

~Judy Woodruff

From one perspective, we're in the early stage in artificial intelligence, but exponentials start out slowly, and then they take off.

~Judy Woodruff

In 2008, the Democrats made a great effort among African-American voters, and they did increase their turnout considerably, and among Latino voters.

~Judy Woodruff

He [Vaclav Havel] did love music. And so much about the Czech revolution was about music.

~Judy Woodruff

Vaclav Havel had this great sense of humor. And you kind of felt that he was making a little bit fun of everything at the same time.

~Judy Woodruff

Vaclav Havel didn't want to ride around in big black cars. And he had his own car with a little red heart on it. And he loved to go out and talk to the people.

~Judy Woodruff

The field of artificial intelligence is pushing new boundaries.

~Judy Woodruff

A.I. poses a potential threat more dangerous than nuclear weapons.

~Judy Woodruff

You may not realize it, but artificial intelligence is all around us.

~Judy Woodruff

CD4 being the level of the lymphocyte that indicates the level of your immune function.

~Judy Woodruff

A definitive decision to say you should start people on therapy as soon as you know they're infected.

~Judy Woodruff

Related Links:

- Thinking Quotes
- People Quotes
- Phones Quotes
- Years Quotes
- Mean Quotes
- Cutting Quotes
- Men Quotes
- Mother Quotes
- Two Quotes
- Country Quotes
- President Quotes
- Jobs Quotes
- Government Quotes
- United States Quotes
- Play Quotes
- Parent Quotes
- Doubt Quotes
- May Quotes
- Program Quotes
- College Quotes