Our show doesn't rely on the typical whistles and bells, and smoke and mirrors. It relies mostly on the music.

~Juice Newton

In between that time, I've done book narrating, you know, books on tape for Dove Audio.

~Juice Newton

I'm not a toy boy, bellybutton band, so I don't have to worry about that. Actually, I never did.

~Juice Newton

There's also, I think more so in the music business and especially for women, this ceiling that people put on you if you have children or a family and decide to spend time with them.

~Juice Newton

But these days, I get a lot more attention and airplay from the Adult Contemporary and country radio stations, and I feel comfortable saying I'm a part of that.

~Juice Newton

And I think that we're more of an alternative act in that sense, and that flavor comes across to the audience.

~Juice Newton

And looking at today's music scene, I think it's cool that there are a lot of consumers and fans not limited by what radio and the record companies tell them to buy.

~Juice Newton

I've been lucky. I've had this history of having an appeal to more than one type of audience.

~Juice Newton

As you know, the business is cyclic with styles. It's no different from clothing styles.

~Juice Newton

I work a lot, and not just in Las Vegas.

~Juice Newton

I never stopped working, but I did let my contract run out. And I didn't really actively pursue it.

~Juice Newton

I'll see you again in a thousand years.

~Juice Newton

I'm really fortunate that I've had some mega hits.

~Juice Newton

I've always enjoyed playing live onstage.

~Juice Newton

I've had the big ups and the big downs.

~Juice Newton

My biggest successes were mainly in the pop market during the 80s.

~Juice Newton

Artists in not only country but other genres usually make four or five albums, then they change producers to keep their sound moving forward.

~Juice Newton

I can't live off of yesterday - that's in the past.

~Juice Newton

I like the big ups. I'm into the big ups.

~Juice Newton

I'll do a cappella stuff, rock 'n' roll and swing stuff.

~Juice Newton

When the audience leaves, I'd like them to feel positive when they go.
