When it comes to letting people marry whomever they love, Mitt Romney says, "No."

~Julian Castro

I wanted to be a quarterback. I used to like Johnny Unitas, the old quarterback for the Colts.

~Julian Castro

This president [Barack Obama] is someone who has done more to protect and keep together families with DACA and then with DAPA.

~Julian Castro

My hope is Donald Trump will focus on building bridges instead of walls.

~Julian Castro

Donald Trump ought to realise that being a president is different to being a candidate and that there is a responsibility that comes with the office.

~Julian Castro

I cannot imagine a scenario where Donald Trump does better than Mitt Romney with the Hispanic vote.

~Julian Castro

I understand Spanish better than I speak it.

~Julian Castro

What I hear from people out there is they always say that [Donald Trump] doesn't like us. And so they're energized.

~Julian Castro

Mitt Romney has undergone an extreme makeover, and it ain't pretty.

~Julian Castro

In my mind, there's no question that Donald Trump has energized the Latino community more than any other presidential candidate. Unfortunately for him, he's done that in a negative way.

~Julian Castro

I think that both Bernie [Sanders] and Hillary [Hillary] have highlighted how much, over the last few decades, we have seen the concentration of wealth in fewer and fewer hands.

~Julian Castro

For my daughter, it's going to mean something special that Hillary Clinton accepts the nomination, and I wanted to make sure that she sees that.

~Julian Castro

Donald Trump really has, truly has motivated the Latino community more than any other presidential candidate, I think, in generations, and motivated them in a negative way.

~Julian Castro

I especially cannot imagine anyone who grew up during the Cold War era listening to Donald Trump and saying, you know what, that's a guy that I want to support. It makes zero sense.

~Julian Castro

With the opportunity we build today for a shared prosperity tomorrow, America will prevail. It begins with re-electing Barack Obama.

~Julian Castro

The American dream is not a sprint or even a marathon but a relay.

~Julian Castro

There's always a little bit of disappointment. At the same time, number one, [Hillary Clinton] made a great choice. Secondly, I'm 41. And so I feel like - that I'm excited about the years to come.

~Julian Castro

Opportunity today, prosperity tomorrow.

~Julian Castro

So my concern is that - what the campaign has to do is to pull those folks [negative to Donald Trump] out and make sure that they actually get to the ballot.

~Julian Castro

Tim Kaine is an excellent choice for vice president.

~Julian Castro

My hope is Donald Trump will take a longer view and a more unified approach.

~Julian Castro

At the same time, it's people that are employed - many folks - but they're still not earning enough to get into the middle class.

~Julian Castro

[People] are ready to go out and vote. There's a difference between being ready and energized and actually going out and voting.

~Julian Castro

Donald Trump is just unfit, unprepared, just doesn't get it, shouldn't be the commander in chief of America.

~Julian Castro

You can't be pro-business unless you're pro education.
