All shall be well, and all shall be well and all manner of thing shall be well.

~Julian of Norwich

He [Jesus] did not say, 'You will never have a rough passage, you will never be over-strained, you will never feel uncomfortable,' but he did say, 'You will never be overcome.'

~Julian of Norwich

The greatest honor we can give Almighty God is to live gladly because of the knowledge of his love.

~Julian of Norwich

Our life is all grounded and rooted in love, and without love we may not live.

~Julian of Norwich

Where do we begin? Begin with the heart.

~Julian of Norwich

For we are so preciously loved by God that we cannot even comprehend it.

~Julian of Norwich

As truly as God is our Father, so truly God is our Mother.

~Julian of Norwich

The fullness of Joy is to behold God in everything.

~Julian of Norwich

God loved us before he made us; and his love has never diminished and never shall.

~Julian of Norwich

We need to fall, and we need to be aware of it; for if we did not fall, we should not know how weak and wretched we are of ourselves, nor should we know our Maker's marvellous love so fully.

~Julian of Norwich

Between God and the soul there is no between.

~Julian of Norwich

He said not 'Thou shalt not be tempested, thou shalt not be travailed, thou shalt not be dis-eased'; but he said, 'Thou shalt not be overcome.

~Julian of Norwich

The fullness of joy is to behold God in everything. God is the ground, the substance, the teaching, the teacher, the purpose, and the reward for which every soul labors.

~Julian of Norwich

He did not say: You will not be assailed, you will not be belabored, you will not be disquieted, but he did say: You will not be overcome.

~Julian of Norwich

My, how busy we become when we lose sight of how God loves us.

~Julian of Norwich

Prayer is the deliberate and persevering action of the soul. It is true and enduring, and full of grace. Prayer fastens the soul to God and makes it one with God's will.

~Julian of Norwich

Every act of kindness and compassion done by any man for his fellow Christian is done by Christ working within him.

~Julian of Norwich

Cheerful givers do not count the cost of what they give. Their hearts are set on pleasing and cheering the person to whom the gift is given.

~Julian of Norwich

Truth sees God, and wisdom contemplates God, and from these two comes a third, a holy and wonderful delight in God, who is love.

~Julian of Norwich

God is our clothing, that wraps, clasps and encloses us so as to never leave us.

~Julian of Norwich

That love of God is hard and marvelous. It cannot and will not be broken because of our sins.

~Julian of Norwich

Pray inwardly, even if you do not enjoy it. It does good, though you feel nothing. Yes, even though you think you are doing nothing.

~Julian of Norwich

This is our Lord's will... that our prayer and our trust be, alike, large.

~Julian of Norwich

We are in God and God whom we do not see is in us.

~Julian of Norwich

Lord Jesus, I have heard you say: 'Sin is necessary but all will be well, and all will be well, and every kind of thing will be well'.

~Julian of Norwich

Everything has being through the love of God.

~Julian of Norwich

Our Savior is our true Mother in whom we are endlessly born and out of whom we shall never come.

~Julian of Norwich

All will be well, and every kind of thing will be well.

~Julian of Norwich

The Enemy is overcome by the blessed Passion and Death of our Lord Jesus Christ.

~Julian of Norwich

Love was without beginning, is, and shall be without ending.

~Julian of Norwich

God willeth to be seen and to be sought: to be abided and to be trusted.

~Julian of Norwich

He that made all things for love, by the same love keepeth them, and shall keep them without end.

~Julian of Norwich

But for I am a woman should I therefore live that I should not tell you the goodness of God?

~Julian of Norwich

The Lord looks on his servants with pity and not with blame. In God's sight we do not fall; in our sight, we do not stand. Both of these are true, but the deeper insight belongs to God.

~Julian of Norwich

The fruit and the purpose of prayer is to be one with and like God in all things.

~Julian of Norwich

In God's sight we do not fall: in our own we do not stand.

~Julian of Norwich

That which is impossible to thee is not impossible to me: I shall save my word in all things and I shall make all things well.

~Julian of Norwich

The ground of mercy is love, and the working of mercy is our keeping in love.

~Julian of Norwich

As we know, our own mother bore us only into pain and dying. But our true mother, Jesus, who is all love, bears us into joy and endless living. Blessed may he be.

~Julian of Norwich

Peace and love are ever in us, being and working; but we be not always in peace and in love.

~Julian of Norwich

Our Lord is the ground from whom our prayer grows and in his love and grace he himself gives us our prayers.

~Julian of Norwich

When we, by the working of mercy and grace, be made meek and mild, we are fully safe; suddenly is the soul oned to God when it is truly peaced in itself: for in Him is found no wrath.

~Julian of Norwich
