We got married in a fever hotter than a pepper sprout.

~June Carter Cash

Our lives are entwined with the people over the footlights. We are a part of them.

~June Carter Cash

Every dog has it's day, unless he loses his tail, then he has a weekend.

~June Carter Cash

I'm just trying to matter.

~June Carter Cash

Inside that book, it's my life-all the places where I'm hurting or I laughed or I cried or I prayed. And I've had to pray a lot!

~June Carter Cash

I chose to be Mrs. Johnny Cash in my life. I decided I'd allow him to be Moses and I'd be Moses' brother Aaron, picking his arms up and padding along behind him.

~June Carter Cash

For the last 20 months, I've just been going from one hospital to another.

~June Carter Cash

I stayed in submission to my husband, and he allowed me to do anything I wanted to. I felt like I was lucky to have that kind of romance.

~June Carter Cash

I have always enjoyed being a part of his life. I've always loved him, and he's always loved me.

~June Carter Cash

I've flown out of character so many times. In that sense I've been lucky, because I've been given the liberty to do just about anything I've wanted to do in my lifetime.

~June Carter Cash

I worked with John, but I had enough sense to walk just a little ways behind him. I could have made more records, but I wanted to have a marriage.
