There is a fine line between assertiveness and being relaxed.

~Justin Guarini

And it's not a finger-pointing issue to me; I take as much responsibility as I can. It was more just me not really knowing what I wanted to do and how to get it done.

~Justin Guarini

I would love to be like a Brian McKnight. Shoot, I'd love to be Brian McKnight.

~Justin Guarini

There are a million things I can think of that I would I want to do. Reporting like you, would be one. A talk show host maybe, also. I want to do a lot.

~Justin Guarini

They look at what's more important, like subjects to help with the SAT's, etc. They miss that music is vital. It offers a break from a stressful day of science and math and it's different.

~Justin Guarini

I've been working on something, just some jazz, relaxed stuff. It will be standard, just piano and voice. It started out as a fun project for me though, I'm still not sure about releasing it.

~Justin Guarini

I'm very new to the industry. I'm not on the Billboard 200 and that is alarming to me. But when I sat down with my management they said it's not a big deal and that it happens all the time.

~Justin Guarini

Even though other people wrote my songs I put my stamp on them. I have a connection, but there is no truer connection than an artists and their own song.

~Justin Guarini

For the second album I look forward to doing a lot of serious collaboration and taking the experiences I've had over this last year, good and bad, and working it into the album.

~Justin Guarini

Either positive or negative comments are good because it shows I am still relevant.

~Justin Guarini

When you have a very hot single there is no reason why it can't drive album sales. People fall off and come back on. I'm looking forward to coming back on with a vengeance.

~Justin Guarini

Jazz is not the format where I want to stay, but it really is a starting point for me.

~Justin Guarini

I'm not unknown, yet I'm not super famous where I can't go anywhere.

~Justin Guarini

I am very conscious of what I say and do when I go out because the media is quick to make that a story.
