~Kacey Musgraves

I'm really proud to be a woman representing country music.

~Kacey Musgraves

If you wanna find the honey / You can't be scared of the bees.

~Kacey Musgraves

Just do something that makes you stand out. Even if not everyone likes it, just do it.

~Kacey Musgraves

Don't wreck my reputation / Let me wreck my own

~Kacey Musgraves

Anyone singing about trucks, in any form, in any song, anywhere, literally just stop - nobody cares!

~Kacey Musgraves

Say what you think / Love who you love.

~Kacey Musgraves

Obviously, I don't live and die by it, everything my horoscope says. But I feel like there's definitely something to it.

~Kacey Musgraves

I'd rather be more of the hippie country chick - as in, instead of pointing a finger, just maybe saying, 'We're all screw-ups. We're all in this kind of together. We're all just figuring this out.'

~Kacey Musgraves

I think a great song appeals to older and younger people and it makes you think. It's also honest, and it also doesn't hurt if it's fun to sing along to.

~Kacey Musgraves

I burned my own damn finger pokin' someone else's fire

~Kacey Musgraves

A great song will be great forever - it's timeless and classic in that way.

~Kacey Musgraves

The more country that my music gets, the less it fits into the country world today. It's almost like there needs to be two genres, modern country and... country?

~Kacey Musgraves

Just like dust, we settle in this town.

~Kacey Musgraves

Really connecting with someone and maybe opening their mind a little bit, is such a cool thing to be able to do through music.

~Kacey Musgraves

I used to write poems more when I was younger, but I haven't in a long time. I just write ideas and paragraphs and go from there.

~Kacey Musgraves

I'm a really huge John Prine fan; I love his clever conversationalist songs.

~Kacey Musgraves

I drink to feel / I smoke to breathe / Just look what love / Has done to me

~Kacey Musgraves

I wrote my first song when I was nine, and it was called 'Notice Me'. My Mom still has the piece of paper around somewhere, but I can't even imagine how terrible it is.

~Kacey Musgraves

A lot of times, I'm singing things that are observational and am definitely including myself.

~Kacey Musgraves

I would love to go to India. And also someday, I want to have a family. That's my bucket-list.

~Kacey Musgraves

I'm all about small towns. I think it's a great place to grow up.

~Kacey Musgraves

I know not every song has to be a powerful message.
