If supporters of equality for women want to vote for the best candidate, they must look to a person regardless of gender and must disregard the gender of political opponents.

~Karen DeCrow

Most of us believe that women can do what men do. The challenge is to convince employers, legislators, mothers, that men can do what women do.

~Karen DeCrow

Just as the Supreme Court has said that women have the right to choose whether or not to be parents, men should also have that right.

~Karen DeCrow

In the battle between the sexes, men and women will go practically to the end of the earth in illogical, irrational ways to give each other pain.

~Karen DeCrow

As I grow older, I become more and more of a Marxist -- Groucho, that is. When you have lived two-thirds of your life, you know the value of a good joke.

~Karen DeCrow

Education, doing homework, is the way to lift up girls. Around the world, where girls are educated, the economy and the standard of living rise.

~Karen DeCrow

During the Renaissance, women were not allowed to attend art school. Everyone asks, where are the great women painters of the Renaissance?

~Karen DeCrow

We should cease thinking about men as the enemy of children and women.

~Karen DeCrow

After 'Roe v. Wade' - when the U.S. Supreme Court legalized abortion in 1973 - I thought the national conversation about abortion and birth control would be over. It was not.

~Karen DeCrow

During the 19th-century struggle for womens rights in America, many saw a competition between rights for black people and those for women.

~Karen DeCrow

Most of the well-known American feminists of the 19th century did not come out against the institution of marriage.
