Friday night is our date night. We really carve out time for each other.

~Karen Kain

Treasure the things about you that make you different and unique.

~Karen Kain

When I grow up I am going to be a ballerina. I will be in Giselle. It will be so much fun being a ballerina.

~Karen Kain

Surround yourself with people who provide you with support and love and remember to give back as much as you can in return.

~Karen Kain

Even if I had nothing to do with the Canada Council, I'd be praying for it.

~Karen Kain

Talent will only take you so far, and it is your ability to feel the music and explore a movement that will bring you the greatest pleasure in dance.

~Karen Kain

What's a dancer's worst enemy? Sometimes it's age, but sometimes it's the dancer themselves.

~Karen Kain

There's nothing like the force and challenge of a new ballet to galvanize everyone involved in bringing it to life.

~Karen Kain

I know how demanding the process of creation is.

~Karen Kain

Like everyone else, I want to go on dancing forever, but I know the day is going to come when I will have to be doing something else.
