Love happens when people forgive.

~Karen Kingsbury

Friends don't get jealous of each other or begrudge the other for finding success. They celebrate every victory together.

~Karen Kingsbury

Perfect love drives out fear

~Karen Kingsbury

The next time that boy pursues you, he better do it like a dying man looking for water in a desert. When it's the right guy, you'll know, because he'll cherish you.

~Karen Kingsbury

God stays awake all the time. In case we need to talk to Him about something.

~Karen Kingsbury

You don't have love without sacrifice; you can't have sacrifice without love.

~Karen Kingsbury

Christmas is a time to mark our progress through this earthly journey. Because of Christmas, this we know: Christ was born for us. He is love, and the plans he has for us always surpass our own.

~Karen Kingsbury

God grows fragrant flowers of hope in the ashes of loss.

~Karen Kingsbury

Life is too short for half-hearted connections and meaningless run-throughs.

~Karen Kingsbury

I can spend 10 to 15 minutes with someone, and they can tell me what they're going through. I may never have gone through that, but I get it on a really deep level.

~Karen Kingsbury

The truth was this: Love is a decision.

~Karen Kingsbury

As long as he was breathing, God's greatest task for him was not yet finished. His highest purpose in life was still unfulfilled. ... God still had plans for him.

~Karen Kingsbury

Readers need to see themselves between the lines of the story.

~Karen Kingsbury

It's never too late with truth. It stands outside time.
