I'm not a quitter. I believe in following things through.

~Karen O

Bands that I've loved over the years are the ones that have a certain myth around them.

~Karen O

Working pretty much nonstop as an artist, the hardest thing is to know what to do with yourself when you have some time off. You struggle with yourself to take a vacation.

~Karen O

I try to sing whatever the music makes me feel. And we play so much music from the other records at shows that I hope no one will miss the old style too much.

~Karen O

Sophomore records are historically really difficult.

~Karen O

I feel like there's a hunger in the culture now for the live experience maybe as a counterpoint to the more sort of synthetic lives that we've been living.

~Karen O

Yeah, I can't separate the art from the music and the music from the art. I think that stems from going to school for film first, and kind of stumbling onto music as my career.

~Karen O

It's insane how quickly everything's changed. I always feel like I'm running hard to catch up.

~Karen O

My onstage persona really is a persona, you know, and really the moment I step onstage, it kind of kicks into gear.

~Karen O

It's almost embarrassing how well-behaved I was, which is probably why I do things like spit water on myself onstage as an adult.

~Karen O

I'm not a 21-year-old angsty self-destructive rapscallion anymore.

~Karen O

You have to open up on stage.

~Karen O

Being on the road with rock, its pretty much 90 percent guys.

~Karen O

For me, California is all about rest, relaxation, space.

~Karen O

I love bass, I really do. Bass is ace!

~Karen O

I plead total ignorance to Led Zeppelin. I am totally in the dark about them.

~Karen O

I was a complete outsider in high school.

~Karen O

I was just totally taken by Michael Jackson when I was a little kid, like everyone else.
