The difficulty for Mr. Obama will be when the public sees where his decisions lead - higher inflation, higher interest rates, higher taxes, sluggish growth, and a jobless recovery.

~Karl Rove

As people do better, they start voting like Republicans - unless they have too much education and vote Democratic, which proves there can be too much of a good thing.

~Karl Rove

I think it's dawning on some Democrats that obstructing the Patriot Act, like they've been obstructing everything else, is bad for them politically.

~Karl Rove

At the core, we are dealing with two parties that have fundamentally different views of the world.

~Karl Rove

You may end up with a different math, but you're entitled to your math. I'm entitled to the math.

~Karl Rove

Mr. Obama has an ingenious approach to job losses: He describes them as job gains.

~Karl Rove

If there's a leak out of my administration, I want to know who it is.

~Karl Rove

If you really want to diminish a candidate, depict him as the foil of his handler. This is as old in American politics as politics itself.

~Karl Rove

What Mr. Obama wants in a nominee isn't really 'empathy' and

'understanding.' He wants a liberal, activist Supreme Court justice.

~Karl Rove

For a person who promised hope and civility in politics, Mr. Obama has shown a borderline obsessiveness in blaming Mr. Bush.

~Karl Rove

If we do with Latinos what we did with African-Americans, Republicans and conservatives will be doomed.

~Karl Rove

In his first 100 days, Mr. Obama has put the fate of his presidency in the hands of House Speaker Nancy Pelosi and Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid. He may come to regret that decision.

~Karl Rove

Somebody gets to be smart and somebody gets to be dumb. If we win, it'll be because of the president. And if we lose, it'll be because of me.

~Karl Rove

Cindy Sheehan is a clown. There is no real antiwar movement. No serious politician, with anything to do with anything, would show his face at an antiwar rally.

~Karl Rove

Many Democrats have a pre-9/11 worldview.

~Karl Rove

In chaos, there is opportunity.

~Karl Rove

My name is Patrick Fitzgerald ... I like to tear the tops off small animals.

~Karl Rove

The effective strategies in politics are ones that are so clear and obvious that people can grasp it.

~Karl Rove

Hurricane Sandy interrupted Mr. Romney's momentum and allowed Mr. Obama to look presidential and bipartisan.

~Karl Rove

If you decide to become a political actor, then the things that you say and you do become subject of public scrutiny and comment.

~Karl Rove

Well, marriage is a very important part of our culture and our society. If we want to have a hopeful and decent society, we ought to aim for the ideal.

~Karl Rove

My Greek mythology is not strong enough.

~Karl Rove

[T]he economy remains the top issue for the electorate.

~Karl Rove

I would have strong opinions and be prepared to argue my case, but if you talk to my colleagues, I think you'd find they consider me the jokester, the informal mayor of the West Wing.

~Karl Rove

Would the Iraq War have occurred without WMD? I doubt it.

~Karl Rove

There is a difference between Senator Obama and Senator McCain. Senator Obama believes that the government ought to be able to take as much as it thinks it needs from anybody.

~Karl Rove

Life is rough for a lot of people. Some people live in greater material circumstances than others, but life is rough for everybody.

~Karl Rove

I'm not planning to endorse anybody. I have a long friendship with the family and a long friendship with Jeb [Bush], but I'm, like a lot of people, sitting on the sidelines watching and waiting.

~Karl Rove

Once again the powers of light and good have triumphed over the media!

~Karl Rove

But the world is a better place with Saddam Hussein gone.

~Karl Rove
