There's money, and then there's class. The two are often separated.

~Kate Jacobs

Better to live your life open rather than exist on borrowed time, waiting for the great unmasking.

~Kate Jacobs

A great measure of a man is how he reacts to a midnight awakening when there's no fire or burglar in sight.

~Kate Jacobs

Life isn't a straightforward climb up the ladder. It can take a few slips to really gain perspective.

~Kate Jacobs

Especially in a world that doesn't need homemade anything. That's when we need homemade everything.

~Kate Jacobs

Sometimes suffering is just suffering, she told Gus. It doesn't make you stronger. It doesn't build character. It only hurts.

~Kate Jacobs

The Friday Night Knitting Club

~Kate Jacobs

...An honest conversation with anyone is a form of praying.

~Kate Jacobs

Whether a person is physically in front of you or not, the love remains.

~Kate Jacobs

Women do amazing, creative, wonderful things.

~Kate Jacobs

It's a scary thing, when a person you admire is suddenly revealed to be absolutely, truly human.

~Kate Jacobs

Things work out better when you're straight up.

~Kate Jacobs

It gave her a feeling of her own power, to make something practical and beautiful just by using her own skill and creativity. It inspired her.

~Kate Jacobs

... everyone has to knit when they're here. ... But not every person has to use yarn.

~Kate Jacobs

We don't always get what we deserve," she replied, patting James over his heart. "Sometimes we get more; sometimes we get less. At least we get something.

~Kate Jacobs

And there's always a better time than right now and there always will be. But right now is what we've got.

~Kate Jacobs

There's the life we dream, the life we deserve, and the life we get. I'll take what I got over what I deserve any day.
