So few grown women like their lives.

~Katharine Graham

A mistake is simply another way of doing things

~Katharine Graham

News is what someone wants suppressed. Everything else is advertising.

~Katharine Graham

The thing women must do to rise to power is to redefine their femininity. Once, power was considered a masculine attribute. In fact power has no sex.

~Katharine Graham

To love what you do and feel that it matters - how could anything be more fun?

~Katharine Graham

Democracy depends on information circulating freely in society.

~Katharine Graham

If we had failed to pursue the facts as far as they led, we would have denied the public any knowledge of an unprecedented scheme of political surveillance and sabotage.

~Katharine Graham

No one can avoid aging, but aging productively is something else.

~Katharine Graham

I always thought if you worked hard enough and tried hard enough, things would work out. I was wrong.

~Katharine Graham

What I essentially did was to put one foot in front of the other, shut my eyes and step off the ledge. The surprise was that I landed on my feet.

~Katharine Graham

Some questions don't have answers, which is a terribly difficult lesson to learn.

~Katharine Graham

To me, working is a form of sustenance, like food or water, and nearly as essential.

~Katharine Graham

The power is to set the agenda. What we print and what we don't print matter a lot.

~Katharine Graham

If one is rich and one's a woman, one can be quite misunderstood.

~Katharine Graham

Truth and news are not the same thing.

~Katharine Graham

Whatever power I exert is collegial.

~Katharine Graham

The longer I live, the more I observe that carrying around anger is the most debilitating to the person who bears it.

~Katharine Graham

The Montessori Method- learning by doing-once again became my stock in trade.

~Katharine Graham

The only way I can describe the extent of my anxiety is to say that I felt as if I were pregnant with a rock.

~Katharine Graham

In Washington, the public and the private intertwine in such a way that they can't be easily separated. This is the city where the personal and the political are most closely linked.
