A gourmet meal without a glass of wine just seems tragic to me somehow.

~Kathy Mattea

That's the great paradox of living on this earth, that in the midst of great pain you can have great joy as well. If we didn't have those things we'd just be numb.

~Kathy Mattea

And in fact, I think the more we start to worship perfection the more soul leaks out of art.

~Kathy Mattea

Chocolate's okay, but I prefer a really intense fruit taste. You know when a peach is absolutely perfect... it's sublime. I'd like to capture that and then use it in a dessert.

~Kathy Mattea

You have to listen to what resonates within your own gut. You find your direction there. Your voice comes out.

~Kathy Mattea

You have to write badly to write at all. If it's crappy, I will rewrite it later. But it will be mine. You can hear the resonance of an artist who goes into herself.

~Kathy Mattea

If you say that you're all about a certain something, and look back and see that the choices that you've made don't reflect that, then there's something for you to look at.

~Kathy Mattea

You've got to dance like nobody's watching, and love like it's never going to hurt.

~Kathy Mattea

Standing knee deep in a river and dying of thirst.

~Kathy Mattea

I want to savor the aging process. As you get older, you trade your innocence for wisdom and the wisdom is your reward.

~Kathy Mattea

Love travels the miles upon the wings of Angels.

~Kathy Mattea

I can't even say I've begun yet, but I'm trying on the idea that there is a book in my future.

~Kathy Mattea

Dance like nobody's watching.

~Kathy Mattea

I don't live in as much fear as I used to. I'm not afraid of the music business. Life is too damn short. I know what's important, and the tasks are very clear.

~Kathy Mattea

An eye for an eye til everyone is blind.

~Kathy Mattea

You know, your speaking voice comes back, but your singing voice you use in a different way.

~Kathy Mattea

Tonight I feel like all of creation is asking us to dance.
