Jesus wrecked my life, shattered it to pieces, and put it back together more beautifully.

~Katie Davis

I will not change the world. Jesus will do that. I can, however, let Him use me to change the world for one person.

~Katie Davis

I don't always know where this life is going. i can't see the end of the road, but here is the great part: courage is not about knowing the path. It is about taking the first step.

~Katie Davis

I believe there is only one truly courageous thing we can do with our lives: to love unconditionally. Absolutely, with all of ourselves, so much that it hurts and then more.

~Katie Davis

Courage isn't about knowing the path, it's about taking the first step.

~Katie Davis

God doesn't tell us to care for the less fortunate, He demands it.

~Katie Davis

We are not called to be safe, we are simply promised that when we are in danger, God is right there with us. And there is no better place to be than in His hands.

~Katie Davis

Do not forget in the darkness what you have been promised in the light.

~Katie Davis

Poverty is not a sin; it is a condition, a circumstance that allows God's work to be displayed.

~Katie Davis

Adoption is a beautiful picture of redemption. It is the Gospel in my living room.

~Katie Davis

Thankfully, God's plans also happen to be much better than my own.

~Katie Davis

Adoption is a redemptive response to tragedy that happens in this broken world.

~Katie Davis

I am more more terrified of living a comfortable life in a self-serving society and failing to follow Jesus than I am of any illness or tragedy.

~Katie Davis

When I imagine God creating each one of us and planting a purpose deep in our hearts, I never imagine that purpose being mediocrity.

~Katie Davis

Adoption is wonderful and beautiful and the greatest blessing I have ever experienced. Adoption is also difficult and painful. Adoption is a beautiful picture of redemption.

~Katie Davis

Thankfully, God's plans do not seem to be affected much by my own.

~Katie Davis

Jesus called His followers to be a lot of things, but I have yet to find where He warned us to be safe.
