You know, for an actor to come into the midst of that, it's - It can either be difficult and somewhat unnerving, or it can be very embracing and like, kind of stepping into a nice hot tub.

~Keith Carradine

But I love to be outdoors. I prefer being outdoors to, you know, being inside.

~Keith Carradine

And so I love films that are kind of rural in atmosphere. And you know, it's just a nice place to be day after day. All be it, it can be hard, it can be hard work. You can get hot.

~Keith Carradine

The Western genre is certainly something with which I'm familiar.

~Keith Carradine

I like the Western genre, I think it's uniquely American.

~Keith Carradine

He was definitely known as the foremost man killer in the West; however there's controversy about virtually every killing that he was known to have been involved in.

~Keith Carradine

Well you know I've been fan of Tony Hillerman's books for years.

~Keith Carradine

I can't put bars on my insides; my love is something I can't hide.

~Keith Carradine

You have to realize that Mel [Gibson], he's a funny guy. He's got a wicked sense of humor.

~Keith Carradine

[Mel Gibson] played this kind of sadistic motorcycle cop. He was terrific. And he had this great sense of visual comedy.

~Keith Carradine

One of the wonderful things about the actor's life is that's what we have the opportunity to do; we bring all these aspects of ourselves and of our personal lives into the work that we do.

~Keith Carradine

I think people start rumors because it creates interest and it makes people look at things and become more interested in what they're looking at.

~Keith Carradine

I wouldn't call it ["Wild Bill Hickok"] an urban legend, but I guess I'd call it a rural legend that the cowboy was always soft-spoken, mild-spoken, well-mannered.

~Keith Carradine

One can't help but bring one's own personality into what one is doing, and it's certainly true of us actors and it's true of writers.

~Keith Carradine

Part of my claim to fame is that my first film was also Johnny Cash's first film.
