

Kelly Miller

Quotes

War, Race, Russia, Justice, Soldier, Germany, Europe, Efficiency, Different, Losing, Looks, Patriotic, Enemy, Faults, Bismarck, Events, Self, Community, Prussia, Communication

The Negro pays for what he wants and begs for what he needs.

~Kelly Miller

For a century after the reign of Frederick, Prussia remained the most prominent Germanic state in Europe.

~Kelly Miller

Genius has no age, no country, no race; it belongs to mankind.

~Kelly Miller

Germany expected that at the most a day or so would see Belgian resistance broken and the dash on Paris begun. It was not safe to start such a forward rush with Belgium unconquered.

~Kelly Miller

Exaggerated self-importance is deemed an individual fault, but a racial virtue.

~Kelly Miller

All great people glorify their history and look back upon their early attainments with a spiritualized vision.

~Kelly Miller

If initiative is the ability to do the right thing, then efficiency is the ability to do the thing right.

~Kelly Miller

Civilization is not a spontaneous generation with any race or nation known to history, but the torch is handed down from race to race and from age to age, and gains in brilliancy as it goes.

~Kelly Miller

No American can read the story of the part America took in the war without experiencing a glow of patriotic feeling. Every Allied nation can say the same thing.

~Kelly Miller

The Best of the artist's art, which will one day be in a Museum wall, the Painting that sets the artist apart of all other artist artists.

~Kelly Miller

Having achieved such signal successes in the east, Russia and Roumania being both disposed of, the German leaders planned a campaign designed to crush Italy.

~Kelly Miller

Racial and denominational schools impart to the membership of their communities something which the general educational institution is wholly unable to inculcate.

~Kelly Miller

The collapse of Russia was the second great event of 1917.

~Kelly Miller

In 1917 - as we have seen, - Italy suffered a great reverse, losing 200,000 soldiers and immense supplies.

~Kelly Miller

With Germany herself falling, it is not strange that the nations leagued with her also went down to defeat.

~Kelly Miller

In the early days of his reign, Bismarck confided to a friend that it would some day be necessary for Germany to confine William II in an insane asylum.

~Kelly Miller

To meet the shortage of supplies from America, due to lack of shipping, the representatives of the different supply departments were constantly in search of available material and supplies in Europe.

~Kelly Miller

... conscienceless efficiency is no match for efficiency quickened by conscience.

~Kelly Miller

The eventual place the American army should take on the western front was to a large extent influenced by the vital question of communication and supply.

~Kelly Miller

Related Links:

- War Quotes
- Race Quotes
- Russia Quotes
- Justice Quotes
- Soldier Quotes
- Germany Quotes
- Europe Quotes
- Efficiency Quotes
- Different Quotes
- Losing Quotes
- Looks Quotes
- Patriotic Quotes
- Enemy Quotes
- Faults Quotes
- Bismarck Quotes
- Events Quotes
- Self Quotes
- Community Quotes
- Prussia Quotes
- Communication Quotes