The beautiful moment sits very close to the horrific one.

~Kelly Reichardt

The lies are in the dialogue, the truth is in the visuals.

~Kelly Reichardt

Happiness is a strange word. So conclusive. Happiness is a thing that happens for a moment.

~Kelly Reichardt

I'm 51. So I'm just saying, 30 years from now you're going to have a different outlook. That's what a midlife crisis is.

~Kelly Reichardt

I don't dislike everything I do. Especially with a film, you don't have an easy relationship with it when it's done because it's been your life.

~Kelly Reichardt

I like to have a project. I live to have something to waste my energy on, something to think about. To figure out like a puzzle.

~Kelly Reichardt

Waking up and having a project to work on is one of life's great pleasures.

~Kelly Reichardt

I'm drawn to people that have tasks to do.

~Kelly Reichardt

I don't have to be making something to feel like life has value.

~Kelly Reichardt

I'm looking at the window and can't understand why there are six hundred thousand SUVs here in this little town. No one can even move.

Why doesn't everyone just get out and walk?

~Kelly Reichardt

I'm not miserable, but I can't not be angry.

~Kelly Reichardt

I find filmmaking to be a super lonely, alienating experience.

~Kelly Reichardt

I'm still the person on my friend's couch, and I'd like to own the couch.

~Kelly Reichardt

As a child, I remember being in the pool at this pool party and having to get out of the pool to watch Nixon resign. My first idea of a president was of a guy who was a crook.

~Kelly Reichardt

In my mid-age I do feel more at peace - not with the world, but with myself.

~Kelly Reichardt

It's been a lifetime of trying to have less beef. Beef comes very naturally to me. I was born with my dukes up, but that's not always necessary anymore. I have to retrain myself.
