Only Christianity and its teachings can explain the purpose and meaning of this world- and also gives the basis for right and wrong, good and evil, etc.

~Ken Ham

No apparent, perceived, or claimed evidence in any field, including history and chronology, can be valid if it contradicts the Scriptural record.

~Ken Ham

God's people need to unashamedly and uncompromisingly stand on the Bible. We need to unashamedly proclaim a Christian worldview and the gospel, all the while giving answers for the hope we have.

~Ken Ham

This means that any aliens would also be affected by Adam's sin, but because they are not Adam's descendants, they can't have salvation.

~Ken Ham

I did not know from a scientific perspective why I did not believe in evolution - but I knew from a Biblical perspective it had to be wrong or my faith was in trouble.

~Ken Ham

What you believe about who you are, where you came from, affects your whole worldview.

~Ken Ham

If you can't trust the Bible's history, how can you trust its morality?

~Ken Ham

It's time for a new Reformation in the Church--to call the Church back to the authority of the Word of God, beginning in Genesis.

~Ken Ham

Why do we wear clothes? Genesis!

~Ken Ham

If we discount the account of creation, we remove the significance of Christmas.

~Ken Ham

Our job if you will, is to roll the stone away. God's job is to raise the dead.

~Ken Ham

I have met so many young people who do not see the church as relevant and do not consider the Bible a real book of history that can be trusted.

~Ken Ham

Isn't it interesting how Christians are not afraid to teach their children about evolution?

~Ken Ham

For students, the evolution-creation discussion can be a useful exercise, for it can help develop their critical thinking skills.

~Ken Ham

While the Bible's account of the flood is one of judgment, it is also one of mercy and salvation.

~Ken Ham

In other words, they decided right from the start that there's no God, and they're setting out to try to prove that there's no God, ... That's their bias to start with.

~Ken Ham
