I don't believe you have to be better than everybody else. I believe you have to be better than you ever thought you could be.

~Ken Venturi

There are two great rules of life: never tell everything at once.

~Ken Venturi

Victory is everything. You can spend the money but you can never spend the memories.

~Ken Venturi

My father taught me that the easiest thing to do was to quit. He'd say, 'It doesn't take any talent to do that.'

~Ken Venturi

The greatest gift in life is to be remembered.

~Ken Venturi

Sometimes you try to make it happen instead of just letting it happen.

~Ken Venturi

After you have the basics down it's all mental.

~Ken Venturi

I had a terrible stammering problem when I was young, and as a result I spent a lot of time alone.

~Ken Venturi

All of my decisions I made when I was a kid were decisions, would my mother and father be proud of.

~Ken Venturi

All of us have an 'inner clock,' a certain pace at which we function most comfortably and effectively.

~Ken Venturi

Art said he wanted to get more distance. I told him to hit it and run backward.

~Ken Venturi

My father always said excuses are the crutches for the untalented.

~Ken Venturi

You can't make good scores happen. You've got to let it happen.

~Ken Venturi

When my father spoke, it was to say something meaningful.

~Ken Venturi

Retirement isn't so bad. Give me a tall drink, a plush sofa and a rerun of 'Matlock,' and you can have the rest. Matlock is my hero. He never loses.

~Ken Venturi

My father was a man of few words.

~Ken Venturi

I began seeing my wife, Kathleen, while I was undergoing treatment for prostate cancer.

~Ken Venturi

I couldn't say my own name when I was 12.
