I've always considered movies evil; the day that cinema was invented was a black day for mankind.

~Kenneth Anger

Lucifer is the patron saint of the visual arts. Color, form - all these are the work of Lucifer.

~Kenneth Anger

Making a movie is casting a spell.

~Kenneth Anger

If you are a member of the media, you belong to the public. You've made that Faustian bargain with your public. Take me - all of me - I'm yours.

~Kenneth Anger

Well, everything is constantly evolving and changing. That's what life is all about. But basically Hollywood has lost its focus as a film center. Films are now made all over the world.

~Kenneth Anger

Some very famous directors have started in the mail room, which is just getting inside the studio, getting to know people, getting to know the routine.

~Kenneth Anger

I think people dream in their own way, dreams are extremely personal, even from person to person. They are completely individual.

~Kenneth Anger

I have a problem with censorship by the lawyer - by legal people by the publishing firm, and I may be changing publishers. They don't seem to want to take too many risks with living people.

~Kenneth Anger

I've never made a film using dialogue or speech.

~Kenneth Anger

I've made several films that haven't been shown.

~Kenneth Anger

Puce Women was my love affair with Hollywood... with all the great goddesses of the silent screen. They were to be filmed in their homes; I was, in effect, filming ghosts.

~Kenneth Anger

Nobody in America, in the modern generation, has read their mythology or legends.

~Kenneth Anger

This flick is all I have to say about being 17, the United States Navy, Christmas and the Fourth of July.

~Kenneth Anger

A lavish colored evocation of Hollywood now gone, as shown through an afternoon in the milieu of the 1920's film star.

~Kenneth Anger

I prefer to think of film making - you know, um, the sweat is supposed to be invisible. But a lot of sweat can go into making a film. But of course, if you enjoy doing it, you enjoy doing it.
