As the centuries pass, the evidence is accumulating that, measured by His effect on history, Jesus is the most influential life ever lived on this planet.

~Kenneth Scott Latourette

The primary source of the appeal of Christianity was Jesus - His incarnation, His life, His crucifixion, and His resurrection.

~Kenneth Scott Latourette

It is not His teachings which make Jesus so remarkable, although these would be enough to give Him distinction. It is a combination of the teachings with the man Himself. The two cannot be separated.

~Kenneth Scott Latourette

Christianity is usually called a religion. As a religion it has had a wider geographic spread and is more deeply rooted among more peoples than any other religion in the history of mankind.

~Kenneth Scott Latourette

Freedom was conditioned by man's physical body, heredity, and environment.

~Kenneth Scott Latourette

The Psalms, the anthology of the hymns of Israel, are still used by Christians.

~Kenneth Scott Latourette

The prophets and the writers of the Psalms were clear that God was continuing to work in the universe and in all history. They declared that He had created the universe.

~Kenneth Scott Latourette

We know something of the history of the spread of Christianity, but much passed from recorded memory and much was transmitted by tradition whose accuracy has been repeatedly questioned.

~Kenneth Scott Latourette

When contrasted with the much longer time that life has been present, the course of Christianity thus far is but a brief moment.

~Kenneth Scott Latourette

Hinduism's basic tenet is that many roads exist by which men have pursued and still pursue their quest for the truth and that none has universal validity.

~Kenneth Scott Latourette

The history of Christianity, therefore, must be of concern to all who are interested in the record of man and particularly to all who seek to understand the contemporary human scene.

~Kenneth Scott Latourette

In the third century after Christ the faith continued to spread.

~Kenneth Scott Latourette

Christians were regarded as separated from society and therefore destructive of the Greco-Roman way of life.

~Kenneth Scott Latourette

Compared with the thousands of years in which human life has been on this planet, Christianity is a recent development.
