The thing that makes me feel young, honestly, is making television. It's the only thing that excites me, the way that you get excited when you're a kid. That's why I still do it.

~Kevin D. Williamson

The great scandal of American life is that we pay for German levels of government without enjoying the related benefits.

~Kevin D. Williamson

Benign environmentalists are opposed to pollution, as all sensible people are; malign environmentalists are opposed to energy and most of what it enables.

~Kevin D. Williamson

Detroit's political leadership is a parasite that has outgrown its host.

~Kevin D. Williamson

If you're not willing to have somebody hauled off at gunpoint over the project, then it's probably not a legitimate concern of the state.

~Kevin D. Williamson

I love to go back and write and direct another film one day, but that's on the backburner for now because I'm involved with so much television at the moment.

~Kevin D. Williamson

I'm always going to look and refer to things and remember things differently than perhaps a real or honest viewer can. I'm tainted with knowing too much. But I still very much love it.

~Kevin D. Williamson

I look at it [Scream movie] and think, wow, I can't believe I wrote that at such a young age. I also look at it and go, ohhh ouch, that dialogue, whoa.
