We do have to remain true to the idea of honesty within what you want to do.

~Kevin Drew

There's nothing better than striving to be a better man.

~Kevin Drew

Everybody has their own ways of wanting to do things.

~Kevin Drew

You're not going out there to make a living out of it by selling records. You want acclaim and you want to know people are listening.

~Kevin Drew

As an artist, expectations are basically your enemy. If you're truly making something to make it, then you're not thinking about anything else except what you're making.

~Kevin Drew

I didn't retire, I became irrelevant - there is a big difference.

~Kevin Drew

I wanted to make a very cohesive-sounding album. Anyone who has listened to me and brought me into their living rooms and their bedrooms - I am making this for them.

~Kevin Drew

Obviously, everyone loves someone who appreciates you and puts you on a pedestal.

~Kevin Drew

The new solo album sounds like me: I'm singing about bad business transactions, bodily fluids, and courage.

~Kevin Drew

Being off the road is one of the greatest things ever. It's hard for me to be around my friends who are on the road.

~Kevin Drew

I am 36 years old, I can't change. I have tried, trust me, but I can't. It's nice to get over yourself and just do it.

~Kevin Drew

You should never leave something with a feeling of defeat.

~Kevin Drew

The great thing about "Shoot 'Em Up, Baby" is that it's the first song that we went and recorded [with Andy Kim].
