Cast aside those who liken godliness to whimsy and who try to combine their greed for wealth with their desire for a happy afterlife.

~Khalil

I know faces, because I look through the fabric my own eye weaves, and behold the reality beneath.

~Khalil

I am the infinite sea, and all worlds are but grains of sand upon my shore.

~Khalil

I have met the soul walking upon my path.

~Khalil

We were a silent, hidden thought in the folds of oblivion, and we have become a voice that causes the heavens to tremble.

~Khalil

What do the nationalists say about killers punishing murderers and thieves sentencing looters?

~Khalil

All that you see was and is for your sake. The numerous books, uncanny markings, and beautiful thoughts are the ghosts of souls who preceded you.

~Khalil

The seasons shall tire and the years grow old, ere they exhaust these words: "Father forgive them, for they know not what they do."

~Khalil

I'm not too much of a wild guy. I'm all about work, I'm all about studio.

~Khalil

Does the song of the sea end at the shore or in the hearts of those who listen to it?

~Khalil

They say if one understands himself, he understands all people. But I say to you, when one loves people, he learns something about himself.

~Khalil

I have learned that the place where I subsist is all places, and the space I occupy is all intervals.

~Khalil

In my thought there is only one universal religion, whose varied paths are but the fingers of the loving hand of the Supreme Being.

~Khalil

Power lies in reason, resolution, and truth. No matter how long the tyrant endures, he will be the loser at the end.

~Khalil

Master, Master Poet, Master of our silent desires, The heart of the world quivers with the throbbing of your heart, But it burns not with your song.

~Khalil

You are still despised and mocked, A man too weak and infirm to be God, A God too much man to call forth adoration.

~Khalil

The wind may blow and then cease, and the sea shall swell and then weary, but the heart of life is a sphere quiet and serene, and the star that shines therein is fixed for evermore.

~Khalil

I go "as others already crucified have gone. And think not we are weary of crucifixion. For we must be crucified by larger and yet larger men, between greater earths and greater heavens.

~Khalil

I would not have thee believe in what I say nor trust in what I do " for my words are naught but thy own thoughts in sound and my deeds thy own hopes in action.

~Khalil

My Soul gave me good counsel, teaching me that the lamp which I carry does not belong to me, and the song that I sing was not generated from within me.

~Khalil
