~Kid Rock

I am happy to make money. I want to make more money, make more music, eat Big Macs and drink Budweisers.

~Kid Rock

I didn't come from a trailer park. I grew up middle class and my dad had money and my mom made my lunch. I got a car when I was sixteen. I'm proud of that.

~Kid Rock

They believed you can't mix rock, country, and rap, and that crossover is dead. I always knew it would work. And it will always work as long as you're really into it and like what you're doing.

~Kid Rock

I truly believe that people like myself, who are in a position of entertainers in the limelight, should keep their mouth shut on politics.

~Kid Rock

If I was president of the good old U.S.A., I'd turn the churches into strip clubs and watch the whole world pray.

~Kid Rock

I could care less about what people think. I'm a Devil Without A Cause.

~Kid Rock

You get what you put in and people get what they deserve.

~Kid Rock

I think what I've learned out of this lifetime is you should be proud of where you come from.

~Kid Rock

I was the little white kid who rocked the turntables

~Kid Rock

Whatever your craft is, be a master of it. Being half assed at something, people will eventually see through.

~Kid Rock

If it looks good, you'll see it. If it sounds good, you'll hear it. If its marketed right, you'll buy it. But... If its real... you'll feel it.

~Kid Rock

Being a father helps me be more responsible... you see more things than you've ever seen.

~Kid Rock

If you had told me when I was starting out that I would be coming down to Nashville, kind of weaving in and out of the country scene, I never would've thought that in a million years.

~Kid Rock

People ask all the time, 'What would you be doing if you weren't Kid Rock?' It's simple: I'd be broke Kid Rock.
