Nothing is impossible for a man with a strong will. The possible is in store only for a man who loves the future. There is no word "impossible" in the Korean language.

~Kim Jong Il

Overall relations between the North and the South have developed in favor of national reconciliation, unity and reunification.

~Kim Jong Il

One can live without candy, but one cannot live without bullets.

~Kim Jong Il

In their day, Marx, Engels, Lenin, and Stalin represented the aspirations and demands of the exploited working masses, and the cause of socialism was inseparably linked with their names.

~Kim Jong Il

I am the object of criticism around the world. But I think that since I am being discussed, then I am on the right track.

~Kim Jong Il

We oppose the reactionary policies of the U.S. government but we do not oppose the American people. We want to have many good friends in the United States.

~Kim Jong Il

A film with an untidy plot cannot grip the audience and define their emotional response.

~Kim Jong Il

Imperialist aid is a noose of plunder and subjugation, aimed at robbing 10 and even 100 things for one thing that is given.

~Kim Jong Il

The liquidation of colonialism is a trend of the times which no force can hold back.

~Kim Jong Il

No production of high ideological and artistic value can evolve out of a creative group whose members are not united ideologically and in which discipline and order have not been established.

~Kim Jong Il
