That's libertarians for you - anarchists who want police protection from their slaves.

~Kim Stanley Robinson

Science was many things, Nadia thought, including a weapon with which to hit other scientists.

~Kim Stanley Robinson

The minimum that most minimalists want leaves in place just the institutions who protect their interests. That's libertarians for you - anarchists who want police protection from their slaves.

~Kim Stanley Robinson

One of the chief features of incompetence was an inability to see it in oneself.

~Kim Stanley Robinson

Easier to destroy the world than to change capitalism even one little bit.

~Kim Stanley Robinson

When it comes to the environment, the invisible hand never picks up the check.

~Kim Stanley Robinson

When some French were assembling an encyclopedia of paranormal experiences, they decided to leave déjà vu out, because it was so common it could not be considered paranormal.

~Kim Stanley Robinson

We dream, we wake on a cold hillside, we pursue the dream again. In the beginning was the dream, and the work of disenchantment never ends.

~Kim Stanley Robinson

What we need is equality without conformity.

~Kim Stanley Robinson

Utopia is the process of making a better world, the name for one path history can take, a dynamic, tumultuous, agonizing process, with no end. Struggle forever.

~Kim Stanley Robinson

But lies were what people wanted; that was politics.

~Kim Stanley Robinson

Rock is much more malleable than ideas.

~Kim Stanley Robinson

The sky itself is the eighth color of the rainbow, spread over the whole sky for us, all the time.

~Kim Stanley Robinson

It is easy to live multiple lives! What is hard is to be a whole person

~Kim Stanley Robinson

Beauty is power and elegance, right action, form fitting function, intelligence, and reasonability. And very often expressed in curves.

~Kim Stanley Robinson

In an expanding universe, order is not really order, but merely the difference between the actual entropy exhibited and the maximum entropy possible.

~Kim Stanley Robinson

Beauty was the promise of happiness, not happiness itself; and the anticipated world was often more rich than anything real.

~Kim Stanley Robinson

It is always the teacher who must learn the most... or else nothing real has happened in the exchange.

~Kim Stanley Robinson

Childhood isn't just those years. It's also the opinions you form about them afterward. That's why our childhoods are so long.

~Kim Stanley Robinson

History is a wave that moves through time slightly faster than we do.

~Kim Stanley Robinson

All the repetitions in the pattern were superficial; the moment was always new. It had to be lived, and then the next moment embraced as it arrived.

~Kim Stanley Robinson

The word of God came down to man as rain to soil, and the result was mud, not clear water. (Bistami) Pg. 128

~Kim Stanley Robinson

You can only kill disappointment with a new try.

~Kim Stanley Robinson

Fights over ideas are the most vicious of all. If it were merely food, or water, or shelter, we would work something out. But in the realm of ideas one can become idealistic .

~Kim Stanley Robinson

A sudden gust: How big the world seems in a wind.

~Kim Stanley Robinson

The vaunted experience of age was perhaps only a matter of wounds and scarring -- that young minds to old minds might be as young bodies to old bodies: stronger, more vital, less twisted by damage.

~Kim Stanley Robinson

The world operates by number, by physical laws, expressed mathematically. If you know these, you will have a better grasp of things. And some possible job skills.
