I've worked so hard to just be my full self and God has just validated me in so many ways.

~Kofi Siriboe

I feel responsible to know what I'm talking about and to actually express myself the way I choose. We have to put those messages on a global platform period. That, to me, is inspiring.

~Kofi Siriboe

I really got attracted to the idea of touching so many people and that idea of art transcending entertainment and art and activism being synonymous.

~Kofi Siriboe

I just owe it to myself, to God and to everybody who supports me and people who don't even know me yet, to just be fully intentional and authentically real with everything I do, say and create.

~Kofi Siriboe

I try to be as intentional as possible.

~Kofi Siriboe

People respect us, they love us and they're entertained by us, so it's like when you trust somebody on that level, it's a lot easier to speak some real knowledge into their minds.

~Kofi Siriboe

As a young, Black man, I absolutely feel responsible.

~Kofi Siriboe

Everyone has a platform, so if we could just use that and combine what we have and know -we talk about it in private - we might as well talk about it [publicly] together.

~Kofi Siriboe

I think that's really the allure of acting for me. I really want to connect with people.

~Kofi Siriboe

I really wanted to be a part of that movement or better yet create that movement.

~Kofi Siriboe

I started in this industry [television] as a kid doing commercials. Ever since I was introduced to it, I loved it.

~Kofi Siriboe

That [Louisiana culture] was all very new to me. I read books and watched documentaries, just trying to immerse myself.

~Kofi Siriboe

When the dialogue is on point and I feel like the overall story and message is really serving something that's socially progressive, it really makes me want to be a part of it.

~Kofi Siriboe

Ralph Angel was such a great character. The single-father image has been portrayed in so many ways so having the ability to be a part of that narrative excites me!

~Kofi Siriboe

As a kid, there [on TV] were things I wasn't aware of - insecurities while transition from teen to adult. When I was around 17 and 18, I started seeing the benefits of this world.

~Kofi Siriboe

Working with Ava [DuVernay] and Oprah [Winfrey], they're just so intimate. I feel like we're really family at this point.

~Kofi Siriboe

I think that's something that Oprah [Winfrey] and Ava [ DuVernay] do seamlessly. They know how to connect to people and they know how to share our stories. To be a part of that is a blessing.
