No matter what class you're from - uptown or downtown - when you're in the dancehall everyone's equal, and it's how you choose to express yourself that makes you stand out.

~Kreeshia Turner

In the dancehall world, we have crews and they battle. It's part of the entire culture surrounding dancehall.

~Kreeshia Turner

Especially as an artist who has been signed to one of the majors throughout my last ten years, you don't always get to write your own music.

~Kreeshia Turner

Jamaica is just one of those places that has so many stimulating factors in everyday existence. It definitely feeds me, my creativity and my soul in so many ways.

~Kreeshia Turner

I'm a Canadian Jamaican. For me, I carry my Jamaican element into my music in my more recent releases.

~Kreeshia Turner

Jamaica is so musical, diverse and so extreme, from people singing in the streets to dancing.

~Kreeshia Turner

I'm definitely trying to incorporate a Caribbean and reggae element.

~Kreeshia Turner

I'm inspired by everything that I encounter, from the environment to people to other songs, movies and artists.

~Kreeshia Turner

To me, the creative inspiration is endless and coming in all sorts of different directions at all times.

~Kreeshha Turner

Jamaica is an island that is filled with so much culture.

~Kreeshha Turner

I would be lying if I didn't say that the most inspirational place for me is Jamaica.

~Kreeshha Turner

When you're given a song, it's my job to record the lyrics, story and emotion, and make everyone who is listening to the song believe that it was my words and experience.

~Kreeshha Turner

I've always felt acting is a part of music.

~Kreeshha Turner

When you think about the passion that's involved with Jamaican culture, it's like, they're not sitting around waiting for things to get all pretty: they want it raw and dutty.

~Kreeshha Turner

Dance brings us all together.

~Kreeshha Turner

When I lived in Jamaica I lived in Kingston, in Spanish Town, and when I go there the only place I want to go is Kingston because that's where the culture is the richest.
