If you're willing to put yourself and your dreams on the line, at the very least you'll discover an inner strength you may not have known existed.

~Kurt Warner

I am where I am because I believed and I never gave up.

~Kurt Warner

When you speak and represent the person of Jesus Christ in all actions of your life, people are drawn to that. You set the standard with your actions. The words can come after.

~Kurt Warner

Whether I'm a Super Bowl Champion or a regular guy stocking groceries at the Hy-Vee, sharing my faith and glorifying Jesus is the central focus of my time on this earth.

~Kurt Warner

No matter what happens on the football field it doesn't change the kind of person I am.

~Kurt Warner

On the football field I keep my emotions tied up inside. But when I'm with family, I let them out.

~Kurt Warner

I wish I could say someone taught me my mental toughness, it would have been a lot less painful.

~Kurt Warner

I expected to play well, I expected to lead my team, and I expected to win.

~Kurt Warner

I've always known that if I got the right opportunity and the right system, I could be successful.

~Kurt Warner

I am glad that I was given the chance. I knew I could still play at a high level.

~Kurt Warner

It's much easier when your team's winning. When your team starts to lose, that's where a lot of these quarterback controversies divide a locker room. The key, as a pro, is to be a pro.

~Kurt Warner

I've done it for a long time and I didn't expect it to be any different here.

~Kurt Warner

Nobody knew who I was.

~Kurt Warner

LeSean McCoy has become the most exciting player in the National Football League. I believe he's the MVP this year.

~Kurt Warner

As I get older, I might need to keep the stubble off. As the years come, it helps to look younger I guess.

~Kurt Warner

I want to win. That's the most important thing.

~Kurt Warner

I got my career started late so, even though I'm getting older, I don't have as much wear and tear on my arm. I feel good. I really do.

~Kurt Warner

They're willing to let Matt sit and wait until they believe he's ready and I can't do the best I'm capable of doing. I'm completely comfortable with that.

~Kurt Warner

I just always felt I'd be playing football in the NFL - or at least playing for a living.

~Kurt Warner

I think there was always that question mark of why am I not in St. Louis anymore? I think everybody had those questions and probably had those perceptions of me.

~Kurt Warner

I've always had confidence.

~Kurt Warner

My friends said, 'You're crazy, enjoy single life.' But that's not for me.

~Kurt Warner

I want to win some Super Bowls, and so that's really my focus, to do whatever I have to do to lead this team to a championship.

~Kurt Warner

As long as you know what you are doing and how to anticipate and throw, I don't think you need all that much physically.

~Kurt Warner

I think Marshawn Lynch is the most important player in this football game.
