Our sexual lives are maintained by the shadow side and the light side, so the more we can understand and embrace enlightenment, the less need there is for chemical enhancement.

~Kyan Douglas

The externals are important but I'm not interested in superficiality.

~Kyan Douglas

I just don't know that shame and fear need to be our teachers; rather, compassion, understanding, and love should be our guides.

~Kyan Douglas

Our Quakers love us. We're big with the Quakers. It's all about cleanliness.

~Kyan Douglas

Drugs and alcohol can be so destructive.

~Kyan Douglas

No nose hair. Ever. You'd be surprised at all the little twigs sticking out. I just can't get it. How can you see that and not just want to hack it off?

~Kyan Douglas

I'm no interior decorator, but just I have a feeling that plastic plants in the bathroom... probably not a good idea.

~Kyan Douglas

There really is something raw about sexuality that's real and good and we must continue to learn to not be ashamed of it. But - we have to honor the reality of practicing safer sex.

~Kyan Douglas

It's not being marketed as a gay show by a gay person. It's just Ellen DeGeneres.

~Kyan Douglas

Everyone's hip to the fact that we all do things to accentuate our looks - and it's much more accepted.

~Kyan Douglas

We shouldn't any of us be afraid of teaching protective measures to save lives.

~Kyan Douglas

Ever since I was young, I was always interested in exploring spirituality. I know that there are many paths to God, there is not just one path.

~Kyan Douglas

You know what I like about disposable razors? They're disposable.

~Kyan Douglas

I've tried to take the opportunity to be as positive a person as I can be, as positive role model as I can be.

~Kyan Douglas

I like a woman with priorities.

~Kyan Douglas

Call me old-fashioned, but I like my conditioners to be conditioners and my shampoos to be shampoos.

~Kyan Douglas

I don't ever apologize for who I am because then I let someone else decide who I am.
