Why did I take up racing? I was too lazy to work and too chicken to steal

~Kyle Petty

When someone's got your rear tires off the ground, you don't have much traction.

~Kyle Petty

We lost one child and we gained ten thousand children.

~Kyle Petty

Faith is believing that there's somebody there to make you stronger. There's somebody there that won't leave you alone; God's always standing by you. That's what that is.

~Kyle Petty

You had life by the tail and didn't know it.

~Kyle Petty

The truth is, the longer it goes, the harder it gets.

~Kyle Petty

I don't think political correctness doesn't make any difference. Once that's in your DNA, you don't pass an ordinance or pass a law or all of the sudden change your DNA.

~Kyle Petty

The only part I miss about driving is driving. That's it. I don't miss all the other stuff that goes along with it, all the other PR stuff. Anybody, when they quit driving, they miss the driving part.

~Kyle Petty

I think faith is the one common denominator between everything that goes on at the race track - a faith in Christ.

~Kyle Petty

Family is the most important thing. Family starts with your wife and your kids.

~Kyle Petty

Jack Roush is the only guy that could keep Matt Kenseth from winning races.

~Kyle Petty

That's what faith is - that belief that there's somebody there that's going to help you and push you and be that person that is there for you when you're in your deepest, darkest moment.
