It's amazing. Being clearheaded for a show, for starters. Not being reflux-y because of the amount of beer you've drunk.

~Ladyhawke

I am a fan of the true crime and horror genres! So, I've got a dark side too.

~Ladyhawke

I'm still always a country girl from New Zealand.

~Ladyhawke

â€œMoney to Burnâ€• is a fantasy. I mean, I would love for that to be a true story. Most of my songs are written in metaphors.

~Ladyhawke

You can't always be like 'sunshine and roses'. I like a little bit of darkness.

~Ladyhawke

I always make music that's reflective of the mindset I'm in at the time, how I'm feeling.

~Ladyhawke

I was living in the U.K. I was back in New Zealand for the New Zealand Music Awards, which is like our annual New Zealand GRAMMYs.

~Ladyhawke

I would be happier if it were a full audience full of drag queens. It would be my dreams come true.

~Ladyhawke

It doesn't matter if there are 20, 40, 100, or 500 people there. It doesn't matter how many people. You've got to perform to those people because they've come.

~Ladyhawke

I think I've got a lot of dark lines in this record [Wild Things] that I've hidden quite nicely among the nice things.

~Ladyhawke

It's crazy in just the difference it makes turning up to sound check without a hangover.

~Ladyhawke

I have these thoughts. I think "What if the show doesn't sell well? What if it's a half-empty room?" These are the paranoia thoughts that go through my head on a day-by-day basis.

~Ladyhawke

I always make music that's reflective of the mindset I'm in at the time, and how I'm feeling.

~Ladyhawke

I don't drink anymore. That's a huge - that's a massive - difference in my life. It's made a huge change in my touring.

~Ladyhawke

When I say "when you're always almost lonely, you forget to take it slowly," I mean that you don't always take care of yourself.

~Ladyhawke

I'm more of a whiz on the guitar and drums. I hear certain sounds in my head, and I find it easy to translate them into synth sounds, but I'm not really technically-minded.

~Ladyhawke

With the first record (2008's Ladyhawke) I was quite naive, but very excited and happy.

~Ladyhawke

I think love is one that can definitely make you go crazy, and it's almost like love can induce mental illness in a lot of people, or bring it out worse. It makes people make crazy decisions.

~Ladyhawke

I feel like in every song I write, I always write a little darker bit.

~Ladyhawke

I'm just a small-town New Zealand girl. But, I do think it was incredibly necessary for me. Wild Things wouldn't exist if I hadn't have made some dramatic changes and that all happened in LA.

~Ladyhawke

I don't want anyone to think that I've been lost to California.

~Ladyhawke

I do enjoy a beer. And a shot of vodka with some apple juice is what loosens me up before I go onstage, because I get really nervous. I wish I could say it was something more healthy, like Pilates.
