If you're passionate about something, you believe in it, then you have to be consistent. And you have to put in the hard work that it takes to be successful.

~Laila Ali

Sometimes your worst hits in life wind up being your best advantage. If only you could believe that when you're getting hit.

~Laila Ali

Sometimes if you don't physically attempt something, you don't realize how sick to your stomach or how hard it is.

~Laila Ali

I was one of those people who wasn't getting a lot of milk, so I had to pump forever to just get two ounces of milk. But, you know, I wasn't going to give up or stop.

~Laila Ali

I am thrilled and honored to have a seat at the table for meaningful conversation with so many accomplished women in the sports world.

~Laila Ali

Everyone wouldn't just accept that I wanted to be a fighter - because I wasn't someone that they envisioned could or would be a fighter.

~Laila Ali

I don't get the action... well, I never did get the big action hero parts. I was always locked into making the kids movies, which were a lot of fun.

~Laila Ali

Maybe if I completely shaved my head and get the frost out of my moustache, maybe I could get one of those serious acting jobs.

~Laila Ali

When I entered the sport of boxing I wanted to be one of the best and be undefeated. And I was able to attain that, not just one championship title, but four.
