

Lake Bell Quotes

Thinking, Trying, People, School, Years, Fun, Voice, Jobs, Lucky, Writing, Important, Drama, Men, Interesting, Creative, Responsibility, Thoughtful, Different, Sexy, Sweat

Filmmaking is a huge privilege; it's not brain surgery. It's art, and art is supposed to be an enjoyable process, and it is an enjoyable experience for me.

~Lake Bell

I like my body, I like to have fun with what I put on, but I also want to remain classic. So I guess my signature is sexy and eclectic but classic.

~Lake Bell

I love fashion. I always have. When I was a kid, I was in almost full-on costumes when I went to school, and I've retained a bit of that in my adulthood.

~Lake Bell

I had had a huge background in the nuance of the accent because I went to drama school in England for four years.

~Lake Bell

With more money brings more fear and when you're trying to be creative in a fear-based environment it's dangerous. Then decisions are made out of fear, not what's best for the film.

~Lake Bell

Actually, in my own life I think I probably feign neuroses to be more interesting than I am.

~Lake Bell

I am lactose intolerant, and I always thought it was really funny how people who are lactose intolerant continue to eat dairy, because they like it so much. And I find it not acceptable.

~Lake Bell

I think of myself as a content creator and hopefully one day a content enabler and supporter of others, so that's what my immediate and hopefully future journey is.

~Lake Bell

I'm going to say a phrase or terminology or vowel that I don't know how to attack .

~Lake Bell

A woman needs her privacy while drinking a dirty Belvedere martini on the rocks with a splash of Tabasco.

~Lake Bell

We're all part of movie and we're all incredibly and equally important but it is your actor's job to perform and to deliver.

~Lake Bell

The reason I got into this business was for the privilege to exist in different genres and different worlds and play out different realities.

~Lake Bell

You have to be steadfast, and right now I'm on a stream train forward to make.

~Lake Bell

You can't live in a dialect without tremendous work. Like any muscle, accents and voices and languages are all formed out of the muscles that we have in our mouths and faces and tongues.

~Lake Bell

People do horrible things when they're young. There might be betrayal and there might be things that should be forgotten.

~Lake Bell

I've learned from every director I've worked with. Everybody's style is very different, and I always say that being an actor is the best film school that I could ever go to.

~Lake Bell

I get really restless if I'm not working. I generate or try to generate my own stuff. I'm constantly on the prowl for working with the people I love and respect.

~Lake Bell

A friend of mine told me, you know your obsession with girls who talk like sexy babies? You have to put that into your script.

~Lake Bell

I'm vegan on home base, but when I travel to other countries, I throw it all into the garbage.

~Lake Bell

I think coming to work and being absurd and neurotic and thoughtful at the same time is far more interesting.

~Lake Bell

I vowed to never use my American accent, and I didn't. Even going to get the paper in the morning to buying milk down at the shop, getting a cab, wherever.

~Lake Bell

It's priceless what you learn when you actually do. It's like going to film school times eleven. The best education is effectively to be functioning in the occupation that you want to take on.

~Lake Bell

I understand and respect deeply that each project brings its own secret and wonderful gifts and happy accidents.

~Lake Bell

I've made it very clear that I'm interested in voiceover work. I mean, I'm always looking for voiceover gigs. I love that.

~Lake Bell

You have to keep hobbies in L.A. Otherwise, it's sad.

~Lake Bell

I completely bombed the audition... I was insecure, stopping and starting. I went to the bathroom and cried.

~Lake Bell

But I'd say 'How to Make It in America' is the most accurate depiction of the New York hipster community on television for sure.

~Lake Bell

There are a lot of funny people and a lot of unfunny people. Some of them are women and some of them are dudes.

~Lake Bell

What's the trick to writing a genuinely funny comedy? The trick is therapy. Take notes.

~Lake Bell

I'm not a drug person. I don't like drugs. I went to college in London, so it was kind of the curriculum there. I got it out of my system really young.

~Lake Bell

I think great directors really respect their actors and vice versa. That mutual respect makes the job fun instead of anything but.

~Lake Bell

I sort of loved the bustle of a thousand questions. Women are inherently kind of multitaskers.

~Lake Bell

Part of why I love being an actor is the opportunity to be able to go to distant lands and take on different worlds and concepts and pretend to take on different occupations and statuses.

~Lake Bell

When you make a movie, you're spending a month of your life with someone and, down the line, you have to spend more months with them. It is this mini-marriage that you have.

~Lake Bell

I'm in full transparency here of "Yeah, I'm trying to find my financing."

~Lake Bell

It's like the most profound accomplishment that I've had in my career, that I can finally be that voice.

~Lake Bell

If I'm going to pour that kind of love and energy and sweat and heartache, all that juju into something, I'm going to lean into my own projects before someone else's.

~Lake Bell

The producers had seen "In a World..." and that's where they found me out and consequently sought me out for this role [in Man up].

~Lake Bell

When I do an accent I commit fully and take it very seriously.

~Lake Bell

I wrote an entire movie [Man up] about how important I think voices are, so it was funny.

~Lake Bell

I feel very lucky that when I'm burnt out of acting I take to the pen and I write something I want to direct.

~Lake Bell

When I'm tired of taking on too much responsibility as a director I then look for an acting gig.

~Lake Bell

Related Links:

- Thinking Quotes
- Trying Quotes
- People Quotes
- School Quotes
- Years Quotes
- Fun Quotes
- Voice Quotes
- Jobs Quotes
- Lucky Quotes
- Writing Quotes
- Important Quotes
- Drama Quotes
- Men Quotes
- Interesting Quotes
- Creative Quotes
- Responsibility Quotes
- Thoughtful Quotes
- Different Quotes
- Sexy Quotes
- Sweat Quotes