When I started to play consistently and produce consistently, that's when I knew that I could compete and do well in the big leagues.

~Lance Berkman

If you gave me a choice between being married and being a baseball player, that's a no-brainer. I would be married any day. I just love it.

~Lance Berkman

Agile, athletic, sleek-all these things describe my game!

~Lance Berkman

I think any great performer or athlete has to have a little bit of a gut to be great.

~Lance Berkman

The overriding thing has to be a love for people. If you don't love people, you don't care if we live in a morally degrading society. Christ is about love, and that's what we want to be about as well.

~Lance Berkman

I want to play every game of my career in an Astros uniform.

~Lance Berkman

They were chanting my name, but I don't know why. My name is on the back of my uniform. So, it's nice to know they can read.

~Lance Berkman

One-run games can go either way, and most of the time they do.

~Lance Berkman

I was raised in church by Christian parents and I was baptized when I was 11 years old. But I didn't really have a good understanding of what the Gospel was really all about until college.

~Lance Berkman

I'll be a Houston Astro no matter what ... I would certainly want to leave myself open to a return to the team if that made sense for the organization and for me as well.

~Lance Berkman

Its unbelievable, I cant even describe it. To be a big part of bringing the World Series the first World Series ever to Houston is just tremendous.

~Lance Berkman

I want to be a guy who produces runs, who drives in runs, who can beat you with a single or can beat you with a home run, who's just a tough out.

~Lance Berkman

I almost feel guilty. The physical toll is tremendous. Im exhausted and I only played nine innings.

~Lance Berkman

I go game to game, at-bat to at-bat. That's my way.

~Lance Berkman

I've always liked doubles. When you scald the ball on a line to the gap, I think that's about as close to a perfect swing as you can get.

~Lance Berkman

I've always enjoyed baseball, but even when I was a kid I can remember viewing it with a businesslike approach.

~Lance Berkman

God has given me a lot of ability to play the game of baseball.

~Lance Berkman

It is, ... kind of a softball atmosphere out there.

~Lance Berkman

The mark of a good hitter is someone who hits the ball hard, often. And if you run into a few home runs, that's fine.

~Lance Berkman

Theres a little more margin for error this year. Last year, it felt like we had to win every game. That wasnt a lot of fun.
